NEW RED ATTACK PERILS POHANG

Gulf Coastline Battens Down For Hurricane

98-Mile Winds Hit Isle Off Pensacola

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 30 (AP) — A powerful hurricane striking with 115-mile-an-hour-winds, smashed at the Mississippi - Alabama - Northwest Florida Gulf coastline tonight.

The first hurricane-force blow slapped Santa Rosa Island, Fla., five miles offshore from Pensacola, with winds up to 98-miles an hour. This initial strike at 4:30 p.m. (CST) was reported by the Pensacola, Fla., weather station to the New Orleans Weather Bureau.

A small tornado — twisting off from the hurricane late today — cut through Apalachicola, Fla., injuring two persons seriously and wrecking about a dozen houses. Damage was estimated at $500,000.

Record Tides Predicted

The Mobile Weather Bureau said the center of the hurricane was expected to hit the Mobile, Ala., area about midnight.

The bureau predicted Gulf tides would equal the 1916 all-time record of 11.6 feet above normal when a hurricane caused property damage of $1,500,000 and nine persons lost their lives.

The present Gulf hurricane already has killed 37 persons in Cuba Aug. 21, before sweeping into the Gulf.

The hurricane skirted the southern tip of Louisiana this afternoon after feinting at the coastline south of New Orleans, then veered toward the Mississippi - Alabama - extreme Northwest Florida coast.

It was along the Mississippi coast that the Sept 19, 1947, hurricane killed 21 persons and did an estimated $40,000,000 property damage.

New Storm Reported

A new tropical storm was also reported by the Weather Bureau at San Juan, Puerto Rico, at 5:30 p.m. (CST). It was located by ships in about the same area where the Gulf hurricane developed. It was reported moving westward at about 14 miles an hour. No wind velocity was reported immediately.

Another hurricane, in the Atlantic, is nearly stationary about 500 miles east of Bermuda.

W. R. Stevens, chief forecaster of the New Orleans Weather Bureau, said the Gulf hurricane will smash at the Mississippi-Alabama coastline "within the next few hours."

The hurricane was the first this year to reach the nation's coastline.

Truman Asks $139,800,000 To Construct Government Facilities For Emergency

Program Provides Buildings Outside D. C.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (INS)—President Truman asked Congress today for $139,800,000 to begin dispensing the U. S. government into nearby rural areas as precaution against atomic bomb attack.

The White House, in announcing the beginning of a long-range plan "to insure the continuity of essential functions of governmet in event of emergency," said the program was decided on after studies by several government agencies.

The announcement gave assurances that "no widespread dislocation of federal workers and their families is envisioned."

It added:

"The new federal buildings will be near enough Washington to permit workers now resident in the Washington area to commute daily to and from their jobs."

Not Complete Surprise

The new "government" will be scattered through Maryland and Virginia, which border the District of Columbia.

The White House said it has not yet been determined just which federal agencies will be the first to be moved into safer territory.

The initial money request would provide government buildings housing between 35,000 and 40,000 workers.

The White House announcement was not a complete surprise because it was known that studies on the project were being made. But there had been no intimation that the studies were near enough conclusion to permit recommendations for action.

Fears have been repeatedly expressed that atomic bomb attack might paralyze the government's ability to act by bringing death or injury to federal executives and members of Congress.

Studies Are Cited

A number of studies, accompanied by charts, have showed how the limited area containing the White House, the Capitol building and other arms of government might be laid waste by one atomic bomb.

The most recent, and most authoritative of all these studies, was "The Effect of Atomic Weapons," a 450-page book prepared by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

The study laid down in great detail the devastating heat and blast effects of A-bombs, and the deadly radioactivity which emanate from the nuclear weapons.

Johnson Brands Attacks On Him As "Political"

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Johnson hit back at a congressman's demand for his resignation today with an accusation that November election politics is back of attacks on him and Secretary of State Acheson.

The Secretary gave out his reply to a letter he received from Rep. Tauriello (D-NY) over the weekend.

Tauriello's letter called on Johnson to resign at once because "you have lost the confidence of the American people." It said "your continuance in office is necessarily embarrassing" to President Truman.

Johnson bluntly told the Congressman that he should address "any further inquiries" regarding the Secretary's cabinet tenure to President Truman.

Mr. Truman has stated in news conferences that he has no intention of getting rid of either his secretary of defense or his secretary of state, both of whom have been under fire from various quarters.

Obviously with those attacks as well as Tauriello's letter in mind, Johnson wrote the Congressman:

"I realize that many American people have undoubtedly been misled, as you appear to have been, by misinformation with respect to the Department of Defense."

He added his comment that the criticism is primarily of political origin "with an eye to the November elections."

VFW Asks New State, Defense Dept. Chiefs

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars called on President Truman today to put new leaders in the State and Defense Departments.

Only five of the 4,000 delegates to the VFW's 51st national encampment voted against the resolution calling for "new and competent leadership in the Department of Defense."

And only three opposed the resolution asking the President to "seek out and appoint new, patriotic and able persons in the Department of State."

Neither resolution mentioned Defense Secretary Louis Johnson or Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Defense Chiefs Urge Faster U. S. Rearming

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson and Defense Secretary Johnson today urged "forced draft" speed in rearming the United States and its allies against the threat of communist aggression.

The two cabinet members and Marshall Plan Administrator Paul Hoffman were closeted with the Senate Appropriations Committee for nearly four hours.

"The danger we face is clear," Johnson told the lawmakers. "The free world must arise and equip forces sufficient to deter further aggression."

China Border Again Violated Reds Declare

"Effective" U.N. Steps Demanded

LONDON, Thursday, Aug. 31 (AP)—Communist China charged today that United States planes had violated the borders of China for the Second time.

The broadcast by the New China news agency, official organ of the Peiping government, said Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai had sent another telegram to Russia's Jakob Malik, this month's president of the United Nations Security Council.

It demanded that the council "take effective measures immediately in checking American aggressive forces in Korea from extending their aggression and to effect the immediate withdrawal of U. S. forces invading Korea."

Moves Ties Together

Russia sought yesterday at Lake Success to add to the Security Council's agenda Red China's complaint charging U. S. bombers from Korea had flown over Manchuria and dropped bombs.

The new Red Chinese complaint seemed to tie in with this Soviet move at Lake Success. The first accusation was made Sunday. That charge was vigorously denied by the United States.

Chou's telegram today charged that American planes "invaded the the air" of Communist China Tuesday and killed and wounded a "number of Chinese people." The telegram gave this account:

American fighter planes carried out reconnoitering missions above Lakooshao on the right bank of the Yalu River which divides Manchuria from Korea. Afterward they flew along the right bank of the river to Chanwienhokou, crossed into Chinese territory and killed two persons.

Civilian Boats Strafed

The same fighters later strafed civilian boats northeast of Antung, above Kooloutzu, killing three Chinese fishermen and wounding five others, two of them severely.

"These continued provocations and atrocious acts on the part of U. S. aggression forces in Korea clearly exposed and testified to the intention of the U. S. government x x x to violate world peace," the telegram said adding:

"On behalf of the central people's government of the People's Republic of China I hereby again raise indignation before the United Nations and (ask) that the U. N. Security Council immediately take, (on) the basis of my protest of Aug. 27, effective measures to stop the action on the part of U. S. aggression forces in Korea to extend the scope of their aggression, and to bring about promptly the withdrawal of U. S. aggression forces from Korea so that the issue will not assume more serious proportions."

House Approves Draft Of Doctors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — The House today passed 362 to one legislation permitting a draft of doctors, dentists and "allied specialists" for the armed services.

A similar bill was passed by the Senate yesterday, but there are differences which will have to be adjusted before the legislation goes to President Truman.

The one opposing vote in the House was cast by Rep. Marcantonio (ALP-NY). Rep. Hedrick (D-WVa) voted "present."

The House bill premits a draft of doctors up to and including age 50; of dentists through age 45.

As the measure came from the Armed Services Committee it was 45 for both doctors and dentists, but at the last minute an amendment was adopted raising the age for doctors to 50. It was offered by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa.).

If called up they would be liable for 21 months duty. Doctors, dentists and some of the allied specialists would be given commissions.

Armed Forces Too Choosey, Selective Service Boss Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — The Selective Service chief lambasted the armed forces today as being too choosey.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey reported in a speech to the American Federation of the Physically Handicapped that nearly three out of five candidates for military service are being rejected.

He blamed that "entirely unrealistic" rate on the armed forces "laboring under the psychoses of the time when they required relatively few men and could pick and choose."

"Other nations that we are fooling around with don't pay nearly as much attention to physical perfection as we do," Hershey said.

"We have grown up with a philosophy of abundance that may some day damn us to oblivion."

Baking Soda Supplies Reduced By Strike

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Supplies of baking soda are becoming scarce as a result of a long strike against two major producers of soda ash, some food store chains and biscuit bakeries reported today.

One large store chain with branches in several states said it had received no baking soda from its suppliers for the past month. Another reported its stores in some areas had been "completely out" for two or three weeks.

Baking soda is used in some types of home baking, in prepared cake mixes and self-rising flours and is a major leavening agent used by large commercial bakers of cookies, cakes and crackers.

Souris, Jr., as the Army reserve enlisted man marches off to active duty. She postponed the sad parting until the troops left the railroad station at Alexandria.

Acheson Says U.S Striving To Keep Peiping Neutral

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson said today that the United States by word and action is doing its utmost to keep Communist China on the sidelines in the Korean fighting.

The Secretary made that the central theme of a news conference in which he also:

1. Said it is up to the United Nations to decide whether U. N. forces shall drive past the 38th parallel when they begin to push back the North Koreans.

2. Declared, in comment on criticism from Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), that the United States and other free nations have shown that they are fully alert to communist dangers in general.

3. Announced a new $15,000,000 loan to bolster Yugoslav Marshal Tito in his feud with the Kremlin. It is the third such loan within a year, for a total of $55,000,000.

Against the background of Pentagon reports that two Red China armies are massing on the Manchurian-Korean frontier farther north, Acheson said every opportunity is being used to stress that the U. S. has no aggressive intentions of any sort against Formosa or the Chinese mainland.

Reporters wanted to know whether there have been diplomatic approaches to the Chinese reds through countries such as India which have representatives at Peiping. He said he could not comment on that.

Mahoney "Advisor" Criticized By Lane

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (AP) — Gov. Lane asserted tonight that Delegate J. Raymond Buffington (D-Balto 3rd) proposed in 1947 that "the already inadequate diets for the mentally ill and the tuberculous be reduced to starvation level."

He described Buffington as George P. Mahoney's advisor on mental hospital problems. Mahoney and Lane are opponents for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Canadian Railroad Strike Ends After Parliament Acts

OTTAWA, Aug. 30 (AP)—Canada's nine-day rail strike ended tonight after parliament enacted legislation to get the 124,000 strikers back on their jobs. Trains will begin rolling again tomorrow.

Strike leaders called off the walkout 19 minutes after the government's strike-settlement bill became a law. The measure had been rushed through the House of Commons and the Senate and was given royal assent in the Senate chamber by Justice Patrick Kerwin of the Canadian Supreme Court.

The key provision of the legislation provided that the workers return to their jobs in 48 hours. Union leaders summoned the strikers to report for duty tomorrow.

Tax Bill Faces Indefinite Delay

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The tax increase bill which would boost rates on 50,000,000 individuals and tens of thousands of business firms faced an indefinite delay today because of a senate dispute over reimposing an excess profits tax on corporations.

The administration wants to start collecting the higher rates from individual taxpayers October 1, but unless the controversy over the excess profits tax is quickly worked out, the deadline may have to be set forward.

President Truman sought personally to break the jam. He called congressional leaders to the White House to appeal for a speed-up on the legislation which is designed to bring in an extra $4,508,000,000 over a full year's operation.

A compromise on the excess profits issue was discussed in Senate cloakrooms. In the House, however, Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) announced his intention of circulating a petition to tack such a levy onto whatever tax legislation emerges from the Senate.

The bill, as drawn, would increase individual income taxes by 20 per cent for many taxpayers, effective October 1. The tax withholdings from wages and salaries, after personal exemptions, would increase on that date from 15 per cent to 18 per cent.

Controls Accord Near; President On Air Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Promised a home-front mobilization bill within 48 hours, President Truman today set 9 p. m. (E.S.T.) Friday as the hour of a broadcast to tell Americans what they face in the way of leaner living.

House and Senate conferees rapidly smoothed out minor conflicts in a day-long session. They predicted the "Defense Production Act of 1950" will be approved and on its way to the White House by Friday at the latest.

Without waiting to see it, Mr. Truman formally asked Congress for $60,000,000 to cover the cost of administering such emergency controls as he may apply.

As now written, the bill gives Mr. Truman a 10-month grant of virtual war powers to control scarce materials, curb consumer and real estate credit, and limit the output of civilian goods where necessary to support the Korean war effort.

It carries standby authority to impose price ceilings—on single items or groups of items—so long as wage controls are applied to the same industries. Consumer rationing is authorized but—officials say—is not now needed.

Most Republican leaders today conceded defeat in their effort to restrict more sharply Mr. Truman's control over the economy. There was little chance, therefore, that the battle would be revived on the Senate floor.

Jet Crashes, Explodes Near Emmitsburg, Md.

EMMITSBURG, Md., Aug. 30 (AP) —A jet plane crashed during a thunderstorm tonight and exploded with a roar that could be heard for a distance of several miles. At least one flier was killed.

Bits of the plane were scattered over a wide area in the Frederick County cornfield of Roy Sanders, about three miles east of here on the Taneytown road.

State police said there was a deep depression in the field, indicating the plane hit the ground before exploding.

Bet Taker Robbed

LONDON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Bookmaker Jimmy Knode reported tonight burglars took two strong boxes containing £25,000 ($70,000) in jewelry and crisp banknotes from his suburban home.

"The idea of having it near me was always to be able to pay if I had a bad day," said the taker of bets.

LUXEMBOURG, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg is doubling its compulsory military service period from six months to one year, the government said today.

South Korean Unit Is Forced Back One Mile

1,200 Reds Die In 2-Day Air Assault

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 31 (AP) — A new Red Korean attack today on the imperiled port city of Pohang rolled the defenders back more than a mile.

The South Korean Third Division, hit by the communists at 2 a. m. (11 a. m. Wednesday), was forced to withdraw to positions about a mile and a half north of the east coast city.

But the relentless push of the Reds on Pohang was costing them heavily. An Air Force summary today said that 1,200 Reds have been killed by plane bombs, rockets and machine-gun fire during the past two days.

Other Red forces, also seeking to push toward Pohang against the South Korean Capital Division from captured Kigye, nine miles to the northwest, shelled the defenders for an hour this morning.

These were the only significant developments reported in the mid-morning communique of the U. S. Eighth Army around a 120-mile battle perimeter against which 120,000 Reds have been sending probing spearheads in search of soft spots.

Bullets Spray City

Yesterday, after communist rifle fire began spraying Pohang, big 46-ton Pershing tanks and Marine planes helped American and South Korean troops beat back the communists for a mile gain north of the city. Plane pilots later reported they killed 500 Reds.

Neither at Pohang nor elsewhere around the 120-mile battle perimeter has the Red concentrations opened a full-scale offensive but their probing efforts grew. Gone was any prospect of the Reds fulfilling an order by their commander-in-chief, Premier Kim Il Sung, to eliminate the beachhead by Aug. 31.

The main Red pressure was brought to bear on the northern front, where the lines run roughly 55 miles inland from Pohang on the east coast to Waegwan, 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

Red Unit Wiped Out

Gen. MacArthur's summary early Thursday said Allied troops cleared out a Red unit which had cut the Pohang-Taegu supply road behind South Korean forces in the Kigye area, nine miles northwest of Pohang. But the key artery to Taegu was reported still under Red rifle fire from the hills.

Farther west along the northern rim of the U. N. beachhead, units of the South Korean Sixth Division clashed with a force of 200 Reds which had infiltrated defense lines three miles north of Sinnyong, which is 16 miles northeast of Taegu.

Still farther west, about 16 miles northwest of Taegu, elements of the U. S. First Cavalry Division stormed up a strategic hill four miles northeast of Waegwan in the face of withering machine gun, mortar and small arms fire. But at nightfall Wednesday, the Americans had failed to reach the summit and withdrew reluctantly to try again at the next dawn.

UMT Is Shelved By Senate Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Senate committee action today shelved a bill for universal military training until next January, as requested by President Truman.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the Senate Armed Services Committee told newsmen that even if the measure is enacted in January, the program would not go into active operation "for a year or two."

The committee voted 8 to 3 to sidetrack the legislation within 24 hours after Mr. Truman wrote congressional leaders that it would be impossible to put the program into effect now. Mr. Truman explained that officers needed to train hundreds of thousands of youths under UMT could not be spared from the Korean war effort.

The program would provide military training for youths 18 through 20 years old for six months on an intensive basis and another six months in reserve status.

Tydings said the commitee agreed with some reluctance to spike the legislation, but realized it would be a long and difficult process to get a permanent bill at this time.

Douglas Flying Home

Would-Be Candidates File Suit

Progressives Open New Attack On Maryland's Ober Law

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (AP)—Five Progressive Party members who want to run for office started a new court attack today on Maryland's law against subversives.

The so-called Ober Act often has been cited as the strongest legislation in the country against communists.

You can go to jail for five years or be fined $5,000 merely for belonging to an organization that works for overthrow of the government by violence.

The five Progressives filed their suit in Baltimore City Court, roughly equivalent to a circuit court. They charged that the Ober law had deprived them of their right to run for office.

The law says a candidate must include in his filing papers an oath that he is not a subversive or a member of any subversive organization. The Progressives refused. They contend Maryland law prohibits such a special oath. The Secretary of State refused to accept their papers.

Today's suit asks the court to put the Progressives on the ballot—for governor, Congress and the state legislautre. The state has until Sept. 11 to file its arguments.

The Ober law was passed by the Maryland General Assembly in 1949 at the behest of a special commission headed by Frank B. Ober, Baltimore attorney.

It requires the loyalty oath of all state and local employes, including school teachers, as well as candidates.

The Progressives contend the Ober law violates the federal Constitution, the federal Bill of Rights, the state constitution, and Maryland's Declaration of Rights.

Obviously with those attacks as well as Tauriello's letter in mind, Johnson wrote the Congressman:

"I realize that many American people have undoubtedly been misled, as you appear to have been, by misinformation with respect to the Department of Defense."

He added his comment that the criticism is primarily of political origin "with an eye to the November elections."

VFW Asks New State, Defense Dept. Chiefs

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars called on President Truman today to put new leaders in the State and Defense Departments.

Only five of the 4,000 delegates to the VFW's 51st national encampment voted against the resolution calling for "new and competent leadership in the Department of Defense."

And only three opposed the resolution asking the President to "seek out and appoint new, patriotic and able persons in the Department of State."

Neither resolution mentioned Defense Secretary Louis Johnson or Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Defense Chiefs Urge Faster U. S. Rearming

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson and Defense Secretary Johnson today urged "forced draft" speed in rearming the United States and its allies against the threat of communist aggression.

The two cabinet members and Marshall Plan Administrator Paul Hoffman were closeted with the Senate Appropriations Committee for nearly four hours.

"The danger we face is clear," Johnson told the lawmakers. "The free world must arise and equip forces sufficient to deter further aggression."

China Border Again Violated Reds Declare

"Effective" U.N. Steps Demanded

LONDON, Thursday, Aug. 31 (AP)—Communist China charged today that United States planes had violated the borders of China for the Second time.

The broadcast by the New China news agency, official organ of the Peiping government, said Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai had sent another telegram to Russia's Jakob Malik, this month's president of the United Nations Security Council.

It demanded that the council "take effective measures immediately in checking American aggressive forces in Korea from extending their aggression and to effect the immediate withdrawal of U. S. forces invading Korea."

Moves Ties Together

Russia sought yesterday at Lake Success to add to the Security Council's agenda Red China's complaint charging U. S. bombers from Korea had flown over Manchuria and dropped bombs.

The new Red Chinese complaint seemed to tie in with this Soviet move at Lake Success. The first accusation was made Sunday. That charge was vigorously denied by the United States.

Chou's telegram today charged that American planes "invaded the the air" of Communist China Tuesday and killed and wounded a "number of Chinese people." The telegram gave this account:

American fighter planes carried out reconnoitering missions above Lakooshao on the right bank of the Yalu River which divides Manchuria from Korea. Afterward they flew along the right bank of the river to Chanwienhokou, crossed into Chinese territory and killed two persons.

Civilian Boats Strafed

The same fighters later strafed civilian boats northeast of Antung, above Kooloutzu, killing three Chinese fishermen and wounding five others, two of them severely.

"These continued provocations and atrocious acts on the part of U. S. aggression forces in Korea clearly exposed and testified to the intention of the U. S. government x x x to violate world peace," the telegram said adding:

"On behalf of the central people's government of the People's Republic of China I hereby again raise indignation before the United Nations and (ask) that the U. N. Security Council immediately take, (on) the basis of my protest of Aug. 27, effective measures to stop the action on the part of U. S. aggression forces in Korea to extend the scope of their aggression, and to bring about promptly the withdrawal of U. S. aggression forces from Korea so that the issue will not assume more serious proportions."

House Approves Draft Of Doctors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — The House today passed 362 to one legislation permitting a draft of doctors, dentists and "allied specialists" for the armed services.

A similar bill was passed by the Senate yesterday, but there are differences which will have to be adjusted before the legislation goes to President Truman.

The one opposing vote in the House was cast by Rep. Marcantonio (ALP-NY). Rep. Hedrick (D-WVa) voted "present."

The House bill premits a draft of doctors up to and including age 50; of dentists through age 45.

As the measure came from the Armed Services Committee it was 45 for both doctors and dentists, but at the last minute an amendment was adopted raising the age for doctors to 50. It was offered by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa.).

If called up they would be liable for 21 months duty. Doctors, dentists and some of the allied specialists would be given commissions.

Armed Forces Too Choosey, Selective Service Boss Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — The Selective Service chief lambasted the armed forces today as being too choosey.

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey reported in a speech to the American Federation of the Physically Handicapped that nearly three out of five candidates for military service are being rejected.

He blamed that "entirely unrealistic" rate on the armed forces "laboring under the psychoses of the time when they required relatively few men and could pick and choose."

"Other nations that we are fooling around with don't pay nearly as much attention to physical perfection as we do," Hershey said.

"We have grown up with a philosophy of abundance that may some day damn us to oblivion."

Baking Soda Supplies Reduced By Strike

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—Supplies of baking soda are becoming scarce as a result of a long strike against two major producers of soda ash, some food store chains and biscuit bakeries reported today.

One large store chain with branches in several states said it had received no baking soda from its suppliers for the past month. Another reported its stores in some areas had been "completely out" for two or three weeks.

Baking soda is used in some types of home baking, in prepared cake mixes and self-rising flours and is a major leavening agent used by large commercial bakers of cookies, cakes and crackers.

Daddy's Little Girl Goes Too

With a firm grasp on her father's hand and her head nestled on his shoulder, 14-month-old Brenda Fay goes along in the arms of Staff Sgt. G. S. Souris, Jr., as the Army reserve enlisted man marches off to active duty. She postponed the sad parting until the troops left the railroad station at Alexandria.

Acheson Says U.S Striving To Keep Peiping Neutral

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson said today that the United States by word and action is doing its utmost to keep Communist China on the sidelines in the Korean fighting.

The Secretary made that the central theme of a news conference in which he also:

1. Said it is up to the United Nations to decide whether U. N. forces shall drive past the 38th parallel when they begin to push back the North Koreans.

2. Declared, in comment on criticism from Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), that the United States and other free nations have shown that they are fully alert to communist dangers in general.

3. Announced a new $15,000,000 loan to bolster Yugoslav Marshal Tito in his feud with the Kremlin. It is the third such loan within a year, for a total of $55,000,000.

Against the background of Pentagon reports that two Red China armies are massing on the Manchurian-Korean frontier farther north, Acheson said every opportunity is being used to stress that the U. S. has no aggressive intentions of any sort against Formosa or the Chinese mainland.

Reporters wanted to know whether there have been diplomatic approaches to the Chinese reds through countries such as India which have representatives at Peiping. He said he could not comment on that.

Mahoney "Advisor" Criticized By Lane

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (AP) — Gov. Lane asserted tonight that Delegate J. Raymond Buffington (D-Balto 3rd) proposed in 1947 that "the already inadequate diets for the mentally ill and the tuberculous be reduced to starvation level."

He described Buffington as George P. Mahoney's advisor on mental hospital problems. Mahoney and Lane are opponents for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Canadian Railroad Strike Ends After Parliament Acts

OTTAWA, Aug. 30 (AP)—Canada's nine-day rail strike ended tonight after parliament enacted legislation to get the 124,000 strikers back on their jobs. Trains will begin rolling again tomorrow.

Strike leaders called off the walkout 19 minutes after the government's strike-settlement bill became a law. The measure had been rushed through the House of Commons and the Senate and was given royal assent in the Senate chamber by Justice Patrick Kerwin of the Canadian Supreme Court.

The key provision of the legislation provided that the workers return to their jobs in 48 hours. Union leaders summoned the strikers to report for duty tomorrow.

Tax Bill Faces Indefinite Delay

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The tax increase bill which would boost rates on 50,000,000 individuals and tens of thousands of business firms faced an indefinite delay today because of a senate dispute over reimposing an excess profits tax on corporations.

The administration wants to start collecting the higher rates from individual taxpayers October 1, but unless the controversy over the excess profits tax is quickly worked out, the deadline may have to be set forward.

President Truman sought personally to break the jam. He called congressional leaders to the White House to appeal for a speed-up on the legislation which is designed to bring in an extra $4,508,000,000 over a full year's operation.

A compromise on the excess profits issue was discussed in Senate cloakrooms. In the House, however, Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) announced his intention of circulating a petition to tack such a levy onto whatever tax legislation emerges from the Senate.

The bill, as drawn, would increase individual income taxes by 20 per cent for many taxpayers, effective October 1. The tax withholdings from wages and salaries, after personal exemptions, would increase on that date from 15 per cent to 18 per cent.

Controls Accord Near; President On Air Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Promised a home-front mobilization bill within 48 hours, President Truman today set 9 p. m. (E.S.T.) Friday as the hour of a broadcast to tell Americans what they face in the way of leaner living.

House and Senate conferees rapidly smoothed out minor conflicts in a day-long session. They predicted the "Defense Production Act of 1950" will be approved and on its way to the White House by Friday at the latest.

Without waiting to see it, Mr. Truman formally asked Congress for $60,000,000 to cover the cost of administering such emergency controls as he may apply.

As now written, the bill gives Mr. Truman a 10-month grant of virtual war powers to control scarce materials, curb consumer and real estate credit, and limit the output of civilian goods where necessary to support the Korean war effort.

It carries standby authority to impose price ceilings—on single items or groups of items—so long as wage controls are applied to the same industries. Consumer rationing is authorized but—officials say—is not now needed.

Most Republican leaders today conceded defeat in their effort to restrict more sharply Mr. Truman's control over the economy. There was little chance, therefore, that the battle would be revived on the Senate floor.

Jet Crashes, Explodes Near Emmitsburg, Md.

EMMITSBURG, Md., Aug. 30 (AP)—A jet plane crashed during a thunderstorm tonight and exploded with a roar that could be heard for a distance of several miles. At least one flier was killed.

Bits of the plane were scattered over a wide area in the Frederick County cornfield of Roy Sanders, about three miles east of here on the Taneytown road.

State police said there was a deep depression in the field, indicating the plane hit the ground before exploding.

Bet Taker Robbed

LONDON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Bookmaker Jimmy Knode reported tonight burglars took two strong boxes containing £25,000 ($70,000) in jewelry and crisp banknotes from his suburban home.

"The idea of having it near me was always to be able to pay if I had a bad day," said the taker of bets.

Service Period Doubled

LUXEMBOURG, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg is doubling its compulsory military service period from six months to one year, the government said today.

South Korean Unit Is Forced Back One Mile

1,200 Reds Die In 2-Day Air Assault

TOKYO, Thursday, Aug. 31 (AP) — A new Red Korean attack today on the imperiled port city of Pohang rolled the defenders back more than a mile.

The South Korean Third Division, hit by the communists at 2 a. m. (11 a. m. Wednesday), was forced to withdraw to positions about a mile and a half north of the east coast city.

But the relentless push of the Reds on Pohang was costing them heavily. An Air Force summary today said that 1,200 Reds have been killed by plane bombs, rockets and machine-gun fire during the past two days.

Other Red forces, also seeking to push toward Pohang against the South Korean Capital Division from captured Kigye, nine miles to the northwest, shelled the defenders for an hour this morning.

These were the only significant developments reported in the mid-morning communique of the U. S. Eighth Army around a 120-mile battle perimeter against which 120,000 Reds have been sending probing spearheads in search of soft spots.

Bullets Spray City

Yesterday, after communist rifle fire began spraying Pohang, big 46-ton Pershing tanks and Marine planes helped American and South Korean troops beat back the communists for a mile gain north of the city. Plane pilots later reported they killed 500 Reds.

Neither at Pohang nor elsewhere around the 120-mile battle perimeter has the Red concentrations opened a full-scale offensive but their probing efforts grew. Gone was any prospect of the Reds fulfilling an order by their commander-in-chief, Premier Kim Il Sung, to eliminate the beachhead by Aug. 31.

The main Red pressure was brought to bear on the northern front, where the lines run roughly 55 miles inland from Pohang on the east coast to Waegwan, 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

Red Unit Wiped Out

Gen. MacArthur's summary early Thursday said Allied troops cleared out a Red unit which had cut the Pohang-Taegu supply road behind South Korean forces in the Kigye area, nine miles northwest of Pohang. But the key artery to Taegu was reported still under Red rifle fire from the hills.

Farther west along the northern rim of the U. N. beachhead, units of the South Korean Sixth Division clashed with a force of 200 Reds which had infiltrated defense lines three miles north of Sinnyong, which is 16 miles northeast of Taegu.

Still farther west, about 16 miles northwest of Taegu, elements of the U. S. First Cavalry Division stormed up a strategic hill four miles northeast of Waegwan in the face of withering machine gun, mortar and small arms fire. But at nightfall Wednesday, the Americans had failed to reach the summit and withdrew reluctantly to try again at the next dawn.

UMT Is Shelved By Senate Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Senate committee action today shelved a bill for universal military training until next January, as requested by President Truman.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the Senate Armed Services Committee told newsmen that even if the measure is enacted in January, the program would not go into active operation "for a year or two."

The committee voted 8 to 3 to sidetrack the legislation within 24 hours after Mr. Truman wrote congressional leaders that it would be impossible to put the program into effect now. Mr. Truman explained that officers needed to train hundreds of thousands of youths under UMT could not be spared from the Korean war effort.

The program would provide military training for youths 18 through 20 years old for six months on an intensive basis and another six months in reserve status.

Tydings said the commitee agreed with some reluctance to spike the legislation, but realized it would be a long and difficult process to get a permanent bill at this time.

Douglas Flying Home

Would-Be Candidates File Suit

Progressives Open New Attack On Maryland's Ober Law

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (AP)—Five Progressive Party members who want to run for office started a new court attack today on Maryland's law against subversives.

The so-called Ober Act often has been cited as the strongest legislation in the country against communists.

You can go to jail for five years or be fined $5,000 merely for belonging to an organization that works for overthrow of the government by violence.

The five Progressives filed their suit in Baltimore City Court, roughly equivalent to a circuit court. They charged that the Ober law had deprived them of their right to run for office.

The law says a candidate must include in his filing papers an oath that he is not a subversive or a member of any subversive organization. The Progressives refused. They contend Maryland law prohibits such a special oath. The Secretary of State refused to accept their papers.

Today's suit asks the court to put the Progressives on the ballot—for governor, Congress and the state legislautre. The state has until Sept. 11 to file its arguments.

The Ober law was passed by the Maryland General Assembly in 1949 at the behest of a special commission headed by Frank B. Ober, Baltimore attorney.

It requires the loyalty oath of all state and local employes, including school teachers, as well as candidates.

The Progressives contend the Ober law violates the federal Constitution, the federal Bill of Rights, the state constitution, and Maryland's Declaration of Rights.

Two Are Cited For Contempt

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—Dr. Edward A. Rumely, executive secretary of the Committee for Constitutional Government, was cited for contempt of Congress today by a close House vote of 183 to 175.

The House followed up by voting a similar charge, 238 to 106, against William L. Patterson, executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress. That group is on the Attorney General's subversive list and is considered poles apart from the CCG in its philosophy.

Then the representatives quit for the day without taking action on a proposed citation against Joseph P. Kamp, executive vice chairman of the Constitutional Educational League.

All three of the accused had refused financial data on their organizations asked by the lobby investigating committee headed by Rep. Buchanan (D-Pa.).

Iron Curtain Pierced By Tiny Balloons

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 30 (AP)—The strong west wind blowing across Northern Europe is converting a Marshall Plan publicity stunt into a propaganda weapon that has pierced the iron curtain.

The weapon is a toy balloon, about a foot in diameter, filled with hydrogen and bearing a printed message of West European recovery.

Released into the air by visitors at exhibits sponsored by the Economic Cooperation Administration, the balloons have drifted hundreds of miles behind the iron curtain.

Replies have been received from persons who read the messages in such communist-ruled countries as Poland, Czechoslovakia, Lithuania, Hungary and Eastern Germany.

Peaches—$1.49, $1.98, $2.49 bushel. Bring baskets. Tractor-Trailer loads arriving each morning. Excelo and Hager's at Lover's Leap.

O'Dwyer Quits City Hall In Colorful Farewell Today

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP) — Amid the whoopla of a Broadway parade, William O'Dwyer tomorrow says "adios" to the metropolis he has served as mayor since 1946.

The Mayor, formally nominated by President Truman today to become ambassador to Mexico, is due for a farewell as noisy and colorful as a south-of-the-border fiesta.

There will be a half holiday for all city employes.

Many of them will be in the parade of 5,000 marchers and seven booming brass bands that will move up Broadway for an hour-long ceremony on the steps of City Hall.

Representatives of the United Nations and of 50 consuls-general of foreign countries stationed here will attend. So will a group of Mexican nationals in costume.

When the goodbye speeches are over, O'Dwyer and his pretty wife leave by train for a vacation on his brother's farm at El Centro, Calif.

He plans to be in Mexico City by Oct. 20. His nomination for the diplomatic post there now is in the hands of the Senate for confirmation.

O'Dwyer's departure will shift his duties to City Council President Vincent R. Impellitteri, who becomes acting mayor until the year's end.

Lane Gives Position On Veterans' Bonus

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (AP) — Gov. Lane said today he is not opposed to a bonus for Maryland war veterans, but he wants the people to vote on it and to know how they are going to pay for it.

Lane answered a charge by George P. Mahoney that he had threatened to veto a veterans' bonus bill. Mahoney is Lane's chief rival for the Democratic nomination for governor in the Sept. 18 primaries.

Lodger Murders Family Of Five

EAST GREENWICH, R. I., Aug. 30 (AP) — Police said that a young lodger told today how he killed once, waited and smoked and then killed again, again and again until he had destroyed a family of five. Then he burned the house.

Among the dead was the young wife of the family who, the lodger said, had taken him as her lover and was going to have his child in a few weeks. "She didn't fight much," the lodger was quoted as saying.

The lodger is rangy, blond Edwin H. Reynolds, 27, who faced an arraignment on charges of murder and arson late today. Reynolds himself is the father of three children, but estranged from his own family.

The victims: Fred J. Dusza, 39; his wife, Beatrice, 31; their three children, Beatrice, 11; Kathryn, 8; Gail 3.

Police Chief Charles R. Johnson quoted Reynolds as saying he beat Dusza to death in a wild fight after an argument Monday night when Reynolds said Mrs. Dusza was going to have his baby.

The Dusza family were found Tuesday morning in the ruins of their burned house on the edge of town.

Child Has Both Hands Mangled By Escalator

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Mary Marbury Bowie, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bowie, Marlboro, Md., had both hands mangled today, police said, when she fell and caught her fingers in the folding step of an escalator in Hecht Company's department store.

Police said the child was with her mother and was being led by her seven-year-old sister, Lucille. Mrs. Bowie was carrying a third daughter, Kitty, 16 months old, in her arms. They said the child fell forward near the bottom of the second-to-first floor escalator.

The machinery was stopped by a section superintendent when he heard the child's screams but an engineer had to loosen the step plates to free the little girl's hands.

At Children's Hospital doctors worked to save both hands from amputation but said it would be several days before they could tell if their efforts were successful.

Lodger Murders Family Of Five

EAST GREENWICH, R. I., Aug. 30 (AP) — Police said that a young lodger told today how he killed once, waited and smoked and then killed again, again and again until he had destroyed a family of five. Then he burned the house.

Among the dead was the young wife of the family who, the lodger said, had taken him as her lover and was going to have his child in a few weeks. "She didn't fight much," the lodger was quoted as saying.

The lodger is rangy, blond Edwin H. Reynolds, 27, who faced an arraignment on charges of murder and arson late today. Reynolds himself is the father of three children, but estranged from his own family.

The victims: Fred J. Dusza, 39; his wife, Beatrice, 31; their three children, Beatrice, 11; Kathryn, 8; Gail 3.

Police Chief Charles R. Johnson quoted Reynolds as saying he beat Dusza to death in a wild fight after an argument Monday night when Reynolds said Mrs. Dusza was going to have his baby.

The Dusza family were found Tuesday morning in the ruins of their burned house on the edge of town.

Child Has Both Hands Mangled By Escalator

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Mary Marbury Bowie, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bowie, Marlboro, Md., had both hands mangled today, police said, when she fell and caught her fingers in the folding step of an escalator in Hecht Company's department store.

Police said the child was with her mother and was being led by her seven-year-old sister, Lucille. Mrs. Bowie was carrying a third daughter, Kitty, 16 months old, in her arms. They said the child fell forward near the bottom of the second-to-first floor escalator.

The machinery was stopped by a section superintendent when he heard the child's screams but an engineer had to loosen the step plates to free the little girl's hands.

At Children's Hospital doctors worked to save both hands from amputation but said it would be several days before they could tell if their efforts were successful.

Will Germany Become Another Korea?

Estimates differ on the size of the military machine the Russians are building in East Germany. But there is no question that the Soviet is forging a formidable weapon there.

U. S. High Commissioner McCloy, in a report to Secretary of State Acheson, puts the strength of the People's Police in East Germany as 100,000 men. He declares that so-called "alert units" now in training total 50,000 men.

But this report, though it has just been made public, came under a covering letter dated July 17. And it dealt with the first three months of this year. The press service of the Christian Democratic Party in West Germany, which presumably gets its information from the same sources as those relied on by the West German Federal Republic, has released later and larger figures.

The press service says these "alert units"—it calls them "commandos"—comprise from 50,000 to 100,000 men. It adds that the total armed strength of the German forces in the Soviet zone, including the frontier police, approximates 300,000 men.

It is perfectly clear the Russians are creating a German army in their zone, for these "police" are being trained in the use of artillery and tanks as well as small arms. The active force is now being given a reserve.

The purpose would be obvious in any case, but the communist-controlled press in East Germany has left no one any excuse for misunderstanding what is afoot. It is charging that troops of the United States, Britain and France now in Germany are there illegally and that the German people have a right to demand the withdrawal of this "interventionist" army.

Plainly, Germany could become another Korea torn by civil war. Seeing this threat, Chancellor Adenauer of West Germany asked for permission to set up a federal police force of 25,000 men. When the occupation powers suggested 10,000 men, he made a public appeal for a special force, and asked for more occupation troops.

North Koreans are reported to be badly off balance. And more and more of them are suffering from lead poisoning.

No Parity For Coffee?

Members of the Senate Agriculture Committee continue to believe that the American consumer is more concerned about the price of coffee than about the price of potatoes or bread. Its second report on the subject, though toned down somewhat, still breathes the assumption that it is terribly shocking if a government (foreign) artificially tries to make the American consumer pay more for farm products—or for coffee, anyway.

This attitude causes speculation as to whether the committee's right hand knows what its left hand is doing in these years of bulging warehouses and blue potatoes.

Latin American governments have just as good reason to promote better coffee prices by the employment of various gimmicks as Washington has to support U. S. farm prices. Better reason, because coffee is more important to the economies of some of them. Farm labor in the coffee-growing areas is paid pitifully low wages.

It seems inconsistent, to say the least, that a committee which defends high American farm prices should talk balefully about anti-trust laws when it seems as if Latin America might be up to the same thing.

Latin Americans know that prices of the things they buy from us have gone up as much as has the price of coffee. When governments set aside the law of supply and demand, the sky is the limit.

President Truman says he will not fire Whip-Em-Before-Breakfast Johnson, thus disposing of the rumor that he might give the job to Deep-Freeze Vaughan.

GIs And Hard ROKs

A few weeks ago newspapers carried dispatches from Korea setting forth the anxiety U. S. commanders felt over the GI nickname for all Koreans, southerners as well as northerners. In the lingo of American fighting men in the late Pacific war, any native brown-skinned person was a "gook." Too many Americans used the word contemptuously. Filipinos didn't like it, and neither do the South Koreans.

At the time we tried to think up a word short and snappy enough to make a good nickname without being likely to degenerate into a term of contempt or condescension. Americans like nicknames and are going to use them anyhow. It wouldn't be much use trying to persuade soldiers not to fling the word 'gook" around carelessly—unless a better word could be found to take its place.

We hit upon the word "ROK" in reading the abbreviation "R. O. K." for Republic of Korea. How about calling the South Koreans ROKS? We felt we had something there, but didn't follow through at the time.

Now we see a dispatch from a correspondent in Korea that gives us that "maybe-we-thought-of-it-first" feeling. He writes a long piece in which Korean volunteers joining U. S. troops are called ROKS all the way through. Hard ROKS, too, many of these fighters seem to be. Somehow we think a tough little South Korean, fighting for his own homeland, will be glad to be a ROK beside a GI.

MacArthur's Warning

General MacArthur has warned the North Korean commander-in-chief that he will be held personally responsible for the practice of murdering disarmed prisoners "if not promptly corrected."

Such a warning presupposes a North Korean defeat. Leaders of victorious armies are never punished for atrocities. Charges of atrocities were made against the Russians in World War II by the Polish government-in-exile, but such cases were never brought to trial.

Enemy infiltration is a related problem faced by United States forces. It is standard for North Korean soldiers to don civilian clothes, pass through U. S. lines as refugees, and later attack them from the rear. That, of course, gives American forces the right to shoot them as spies.

Infiltration tactics have the effect of making GIs suspicious of genuine Korean refugees. Under these circumstances they tend to dislike all Koreans. It is somewhat tragic that ill feeling should exist between the victims of aggression and the men risking death to protect them. But this effect of infiltration tactics no doubt is pleasing to Moscow.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

The Pinworm Problem

MANY children have pinworms and afflicted youngsters often suffer from indigestion and intense itching. However, it is doubtful whether the parasites can be blamed for personality disturbances, irritability, weight loss, or juvenile delinquency. After all, the mere presence of worms does not prove the parasites are responsible for all our human ills.

They do cause discomfort, however, especially in the early evening after the child has gone to bed. The worms emerge from the rectum at this time to lay their eggs on the surrounding skin. This causes the youngster to scratch the area furiously, which is what Mother Nature intended because the pests are thus given an opportunity to complete their life cycle. As the victim scratches, some of the eggs adhere to the fingers or lodge beneath the nails. When contaminated hands are brought to the lips at a later time, a few of the ova are bound to enter the mouth and be swallowed. They pass through the stomach, hatch into adults and in no time are laying eggs.

Many of the eggs fall on the sheets and blankets and may be brushed to the floor. Studies have shown that entire households have become contaminated, the eggs reach the living room sofa and even the draperies. In this environment it is difficult for any member of the family to escape infestation. This explains why physicians often recommend treating everyone in the home after discovering that one youngster is a victim.

The irritation also may lead to restlessness, especially while asleep. It is conceivable that in the circumstances sleepwalking and talking can ensue. This is questionable because these conditions are noted in many who do not have pinworms. The parasites may invade the appendix and irritate the wall of the intestine, producing abdominal distress. Appendicitis has occurred and when it is removed, it is found to be alive with the parasites. The genitalia are involved occasionally in girls. Other symptoms of pinworm infestation include weight loss, pallor, anemia, nervousness, and nightmares.

The mother may be able to make the diagnosis when she responds to the cries of her offspring and finds the tiny worms crawling on the child's buttocks. The "critters" are round and whitish in color; they measure less than one-half inch in length and the mamas are two to three times the size of the laddies. As a rule, recovering the eggs offers the clew of infestation and this is done by swabbing the anal region with a cellophane tipped glass rod or an applicator covered with scotch tape. The eggs adhere to these substances and can be seen under microscope.

In eliminating the worms from the household, strict cleanliness is of the utmost importance. Daily bathing is essential and the hands should be scrubbed carefully, especially the nails. If reinfestation occurs because the child is careless, it is advisable to have him wear gloves or pajamas that are heavier than usual. The bed clothing should be boiled frequently. The application of an ammoniated mercury ointment to the itching area is helpful. The most successful internal medicines are tablets containing gentian violet or diphenan. Both are effective in killing worms, but the latter is tolerated better because it is less likely to produce nausea and vomiting. Enemas of salt water, soap, diluted vinegar, quinine, hexylresorcinol and quassia chip are useful because they discourage the female from laying eggs.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Says DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — Inside fact about the White House crackdowns on Secretary of the Navy Matthews and General MacArthur is that the administration had been waiting for a chance to knock down the increasing eagerness of the military to encroach on the civilian branches of government.

A lot of things have been going on which the public doesn't know about, all pointing toward more and more military rule. One was the quiet attempt by Secretary of Defense Johnson to keep Guam under the military when it was supposed to go under a civilian governor July 1. Another is the Navy's attempt to hold on to the "trust islands" of the Pacific. Another has been General MacArthur's repeated attempts to dictate foreign policy.

Another flagrant intervention of the military into foreign policy was when eleven generals secretly went up to Congress and urged a $100,000,000 loan to Dictator Franco of Spain—despite the fact that their commander-in-chief in the White House had ruled against such a loan.

President Truman was icy cool with his Secretary of Defense when he heard of this. Unsmiling, he turned to Louey Johnson in Cabinet meeting and snapped: "And I don't want any more trips by you or your generals to Congress regarding a loan to Franco."

Generals Want War

The two public crackdowns were aimed directly at MacArthur, and indirectly at Johnson through his Secretary of the Navy. Actually, Secretary Matthews is a sincere, idealistic, lovable person, the top lay Catholic in the United States, and neither the State Department nor the White House wanted to hit him personally.

However, the statement by a Cabinet officer in favor of a preventive war, it was decided, had to be disavowed publicly. For it played directly into the hands of European propagandists, already partly successful in branding us as warmongers.

Another reason for the crackdown was that General Orvil Anderson, commander of the Air War College, at Maxwell Air Base, Montgomery, Ala., has been staging a series of lectures in which a preventive war is urged openly.

One of the distinguished speakers at the Air War College has been Father Edmund Walsh of Georgetown University, a friend of Secretary Matthews, who voiced almost the same preventive war idea as Matthews.

Another earlier speaker at the Air College was Brig. Gen. S. D. Grubbs, former commander at Maxwell, who, in an address before a civilian group in Montgomery during the Berlin blockade, urged an ultimatum to Russia that if the blockade was not lifted in 36 hours, we should declare war.

General Maxwell himself, speaking some time ago before the Kiwanis Club at Montgomery, indicated that he favored immediate war with Russia; and there has been concrete evidence that the General follows a deliberate program at the Air College aimed to indoctrinate students with the idea of an immediate attack.

All these matters have been reported to the White House from time to time; and as a result President Truman is determined that the original concept of military duty laid down by the founding fathers shall be followed, namely that it is the military's job to win wars not declare them.

NOTE —If the United States followed the advice of the generals in favor of an early war, it would appear—based on results in Korea—that the military are a long way from being prepared.

NOTE 2—A group of farsighted senators, led by Brien McMahon of Connecticut, have introduced a resolution calling for a disarmament conference to show the world that we would reduce armament if Russia would do the same. While they have no great illusions that Russia would reduce, they feel it important to keep his peaceful goal before the world.

Capital News Capsules

LECTURE IN LONDON — U. S. Ambassador Douglas has bawled out the British for talking rearmament but doing nothing. Last week he told Foreign Minister Bevin in very plain English that the United States was shocked at failure to call Parliament back into session. The Ambassador also told Bevin that Britain's current plan for rearmament is completely inadequate; that whereas the United States is calling up thousands of men, Britain is merely marking time.

BEVIN'S LAST CONFERENCE—British Foreign Minister Bevin has cabled Secretary Acheson asking a full review of Anglo-American policies for the Far East when Bevin comes to New York next month. This will be Bevin's last major conference as foreign minister of Great Britain. Among other things he will try to persuade the United States not to become embroiled with Chiang Kai-Shek and the Kuomintang any further. The reason: Communist China and the Kremlin are making tragic headway in calling this a war between the yellow races and the white race. Bevin feares we'll lose out all over Asia.

WARNING NEHRU—U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson has warned Prime Minister Nehru that he should call off his proposed trip to communist China. Peace-making efforts in Korea, our ambassador told the Prime Minister, should be left to the United Nations. If Nehru feels he wants to contribute, Henderson said, he should fly to Lake Success to head the Indian delegation . . . . Meanwhile the Kremlin is secretely currying favor with Nehru by offering large quantities of wheat to India's starving millions. The State Department, on the other hand, hasn't been able to get Congress to permit us to ship agricultural surpluses to India.

LOYALTY BEGINS AT HOME—Hard-hitting Tony Tauriello, the Congressman from Buffalo, N. Y., has made a unique appeal to Louey Johnson to resign as Secretary of Defense. Tauriello puts it on the ground of loyalty. . . . "The chief executive is loyal to his friends, loyal to his Cabinet officers, sometimes loyal to a fault," the Congressman wrote Johnson direct. "You should resign because you have lost your usefulness to him and you have lost your usefulness to the American people. Remember that loyalty works both ways. And if you are loyal to Mr. Truman in the true sense, you will act in his interest, not your own."

BASING-POINT ROW AGAIN—Senator Ed Johnson of Colorado and a sub-committee are trying to overrule a Supreme Court decision and a Presidential veto—in a most unusual way. Both the Court and the White House ruled emphatically against the basing-point system. But now, five senators, all violently probasing point, are giving a third-degree interrobation to the Federal Trade Commission, which must enforce the basing-point decision. Coaching the senators backstage is William Simon, a registered lobbyist for the basing-point business group.

MATTER OF FACT

By JOSEPH ALSOP

Baker Company

BAKER Company of the 27th Regiment's 1st Battalion was breakfasting in a cheerful mood. The morning was sunny but almost cool, and the men crowded hungrily into their front-line mess hall—a little rocky draw that gave protection from sniper fire. When the young company commander, Capt. Gordon Jung, joined the chow line he was greeted with comments on the good night just passed.

"Yes, we had a quiet day altogether," Jung reflectively replied.

Possibly Baker Company's standards of quietness have been influenced by their experience in Korea. In their first action, more than six weeks ago, they were overrun by six enemy tanks and more than 1,000 infantry. Rallied by Capt. Jung they held their position until they could retire in good order, and help the rest of the battalion wipe out the attackers. That day Capt. Jung earned a recommendation for the Distinguished Service Cross, and Baker Company learned that "we was better than they was," as a beardless Pfc. succintly explained.

At any rate, the reader must judge of this quiet day, which this reporter spent as Baker Company's guest. The day began at sun-up, after an agreeably successful little night battle during which a Baker Company bazooka team polished off an enemy self-propelled gun when "they were looking right down our throat," while the rifle platoons decimated a North Korean infantry battalion charging across the rice paddies just before dawn. And for the first hours of the day it really was pretty quiet.

Comparative Peace

To be sure, a constant rattle of firing came down from the high mountain peak on the left flank, which the South Koreans were holding. To be sure, our mortars and the enemy's sometimes rather languidly lobbed shots back and forth. But in Baker Company's command post, in a leafy persimmon grove overlooking no-man's land, there was comparative peace.

While those on duty maintained the alert, most of the company's 140 men and five officers slept on the hard ground, or gossiped of past fighting, or cleaned their weapons. The day's real work began rather disconcertingly in mid-afternoon.

The firing on the flanking mountain peak had long been growing less intense when suddenly South Korean troops began to filter through Baker Company lines. With a strong enemy force moving onto the heights above, the position instantly became critical. While more and more starveling South Koreans drifted in, the battalion was notified; a full alert was sounded; and a South Korean officer was rounded up. The young Korean lieutenant haltingly but defiantly explained that his men had been "to many days" on the mountain without enough food or water or even ammunition. Meanwhile, Charley Company, farther down the line reported enemy infantry already attacking them.

The battalion spoke. All companies were to rally all South Koreans in their positions, offering food, promising heavy artillery support, urging them to retake their mountain peak. With infinite difficulty and patience, Jung explained all this. The Korean lieutenant nodded curtly, called to his men, and led them back up the hill. Our mortars began their screaming in dead earnest, the 155 mm. howitzers boomed angrily, and the mountain peak was veiled in silvery and brown puffs of white phosporous and high explosives. There was a long, anxious wait. At last the enemy fled. The flank was secure again.

By then supper was over. Capt. Jung, his face a little drawn, gave his instructions to his platoon leaders. The battalion had just rather grimly announced a heavy enemy attack on the artillery batteries and main supply road in the rear. But the threat of being cut off seemed to worry Jung much less than the

'Hush-Hush' Toward U. S. Foreign Policy Should End

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—Conceding that this week was an inopportune occasion for the discussion of the strategic importance of Formosa, the fact remains that an unhealthy attitude is developing in the national capital toward the revelation of truth to the American people by military men concerning problems of defense.

The United States armed forces are today in Korea and blood is being spilled because the defense of an outpost in the Far East was not thoroughly discussed in advance and the opinion of our highest military men solicited on the subject.

Why was the defense of Korea, for instance, considered of no interest to the people of the United States last January? Who made the decision to suppress the facts about Korea's strategic importance? Since it was not the military men, how can the American people learn what their views really were? It does not seem plausible that American military opinion would regard the possession of Korea by a hostile power as a matter of indifference to us, especially when the Japan-Okinawa-Philippines line is supposed to be our prime defense. For if Korea were to become a base for Soviet air power and submarines, the future of Japan as a possible ally of the United States would become perilous. Korea geographically is a knife projected against a peaceful Japan.

Frontiers Extended

The argument will be made that to discuss anything of this sort is to invade "foreign policy." There was a time—in the days of isolationism—when American frontiers were on our own Pacific and Atlantic coasts. Today, however, America's frontiers are on the Elbe River in Europe and in Korea as well as Formosa. To insist that everything going on abroad can be commented on officialy only by one department is to carry the "hush hush" idea too far.

The outline of American defense strategy which General MacArthur has given is exactly the outline which the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff would express if they were permitted to speak their minds as to defense problems outside Continental United States. There were one or two sentences in the MacArthur statement which might better have been omitted by the general, as they referred to the views of opponents of the policy he was advocating. Outside of these brief phrases, the declaration can stand as an expression of American military theory at its best.

The danger to America in suppressing expert discussion of defense problems is growing. Back in 1940, when Admiral Taussig was testifying before a Senate committee, he advocated that the United States enter into naval arrangements immediately with other nations, including the Netherlands government, for the protection of our Far Eastern interests. He was reprimanded by the late President Roosevelt, but the advice he gave if accepted, would have saved many thousands of American lives and might have thwarted Japan's naval sortie to the South in 1941 and 1942.

Only last October Admiral Louis Denfeld, chief of naval operations, in answer to the questions of the House Armed Services Committee, expressed himself frankly and conscientiously on what defense weapons and strategy should be used. Had his advice been taken, America would today be better able to cope with Korean war. But he was publicly reprimanded and removed from office. Immediately all experts opinion was intimidated and today it's an open secret that congressional committees cannot get completely independent views from high military chiefs.

Value Questionable

One wonders how far toward the totalitarianism of communism and fascism Americans have drifted in their zeal for suppression of truth, especially when it is sought from experts in their particular fields. If the Department of State alone can discuss defense of areas in different parts of the world where our forces are stationed, then the value of a Department of Defense as an instrument of military advice may be questioned. If there are, as reported, major differences of opinion today between the Department of State and the Department of Defense, it must be because each is not permitted freedom of expression. There is no reason why the Department of Defense shouldn't say what it thinks is a necessary defense program from the standpoint of national safety, and there is no reason why the Department of State should not, if it wishes, argue against the wisdom of employing American forces in defense of those areas—looking at it from a diplomatic standpoint.

The American people could then get all the facts and all the expert advice. But apparently there are some Americans who believe that everybody hereabouts should accept goose-stepping discipline and that even the press should refrain from printing news giving the statements of important persons if such statements do not conform to State Department policy.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Coal Is Scared

MANY products become obsolescent and others take their place. One might cook a steak over charcoal briquettes, but I can recall, as a boy, seeing charcoal in every grocery store. Up in the Berkshires, where I have a farm, charcoal burning used to be quite a business, but that industry has disappeared. The coal industry faces trouble because it is outpriced in relationship to its competitors.

This is the language of despair, spoken by John T. Jones, president of District 16 of the United Mine Workers:

"The thousands of American coal miners in my district who might be working if coal were producing the energy now being produced by cheap foreign fuel oil, think it far more important that they be working and producing than the American taxpayers' dollars be used to finance a great program of expansion in foreign oil production and refining facilities. They are well aware that those much-needed dollars that the proponents of this plan (Point Four) talk about go into the pockets of the six big oil-importing oil companies, five of which are American - owned. They also know that most of the dollars that remain in those foreign countries are paid to the ruling class in the form of royalties and very little of it trickles down to the working men and women of those countries. . . "

Now, actually, coal was outpriced by the United Mine Workers with the object of giving miners and their families a living wage and safer working conditions. Even if one accepts John L. Lewis's own interpretation of his motives and conduct, it will in no way affect the competition between coal and oil, and between coal and natural gas. Even if one accepts John L. Lewis's bitterness against the politicians as correct, his strike judgment was only correct on a short-term basis. He drove a nation away from his commodity.

In a free economic system, in which competing products appear within the price range abandoned by what was regarded as a primary product, obsolescence cannot be protected. I notice in the chain stores a new commodity of dishes, cutlery and table accessories, in many colors, not readily breakable, which is taking the place of paperware and breakable chinaware for picnics and similar outdoor activities. It is made of some kind of plastic and is serviceable. In a word, if one watches, new products, in durable goods or consumer's goods, push into the market in a free economy and replace what came before.

The neo-Luddites would keep obsolescense in the market. They are, you may recall, named after those journeymen and apprentices in England who set out to destroy the first power-driven machinery. They did destroy some, but they could not destroy the concept of power-driven machinery any more than we can stop the march toward automatic machinery or atomic power.

True, each new development in production raises problems for some capitalists, management and workers, and a new means of production, such as the automatic "thinking" system of machines, will create social problems of major magnitude. Professor Norbert Wiener of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who conceives these automatic monsters, is not the first person to be frightened by the consequences of his genius. He has blueprinted the social effects of these machines upon our society.

No one can, with certainty even forecast the prospects for us that may come from atomic power. The difficulties now are mechanical, not social; the problem is to contain the power in practical vessels and the inference is that great ocean liners may be the first to use such power practically. But it is foreseeable that some day atomic power may do to oil and natural gas what products have already done to coal.

Then we shall, in civilized societies, be faced by the social problems of organized life that requires few to labor in industry producing ample supplies for what may be a permanent state of over-population. Such social problems are vexing, because they do not invite workable practical solutions. All the great minds from Hammurabi and Wang An-Shih to Karl Marx and Oscar Ewing have had pat solutions, which somehow do not satisfy the human craving for leisure and independence and productivity. Most of the human race is so constituted that men dislike being drones. The fingers itch to do.

Will Germany Become Another Korea?

Estimates differ on the size of the military machine the Russians are building in East Germany. But there is no question that the Soviet is forging a formidable weapon there.

U. S. High Commissioner McCloy, in a report to Secretary of State Acheson, puts the strength of the People's Police in East Germany as 100,000 men. He declares that so-called "alert units" now in training total 50,000 men.

But this report, though it has just been made public, came under a covering letter dated July 17. And it dealt with the first three months of this year. The press service of the Christian Democratic Party in West Germany, which presumably gets its information from the same sources as those relied on by the West German Federal Republic, has released later and larger figures.

The press service says these "alert units"—it calls them "commandos"—comprise from 50,000 to 100,000 men. It adds that the total armed strength of the German forces in the Soviet zone, including the frontier police, approximates 300,000 men.

It is perfectly clear the Russians are creating a German army in their zone, for these "police" are being trained in the use of artillery and tanks as well as small arms. The active force is now being given a reserve.

The purpose would be obvious in any case, but the communist-controlled press in East Germany has left no one any excuse for misunderstanding what is afoot. It is charging that troops of the United States, Britain and France now in Germany are there illegally and that the German people have a right to demand the withdrawal of this "interventionist" army.

Plainly, Germany could become another Korea torn by civil war. Seeing this threat, Chancellor Adenauer of West Germany asked for permission to set up a federal police force of 25,000 men. When the occupation powers suggested 10,000 men, he made a public appeal for a special force, and asked for more occupation troops.

North Koreans are reported to be badly off balance. And more and more of them are suffering from lead poisoning.

No Parity For Coffee?

Members of the Senate Agriculture Committee continue to believe that the American consumer is more concerned about the price of coffee than about the price of potatoes or bread. Its second report on the subject, though toned down somewhat, still breathes the assumption that it is terribly shocking if a government (foreign) artificially tries to make the American consumer pay more for farm products—or for coffee, anyway.

This attitude causes speculation as to whether the committee's right hand knows what its left hand is doing in these years of bulging warehouses and blue potatoes.

Latin American governments have just as good reason to promote better coffee prices by the employment of various gimmicks as Washington has to support U. S. farm prices. Better reason, because coffee is more important to the economies of some of them. Farm labor in the coffee-growing areas is paid pitifully low wages.

It seems inconsistent, to say the least, that a committee which defends high American farm prices should talk balefully about anti-trust laws when it seems as if Latin America might be up to the same thing.

Latin Americans know that prices of the things they buy from us have gone up as much as has the price of coffee. When governments set aside the law of supply and demand, the sky is the limit.

President Truman says he will not fire Whip-'Em-Before-Breakfast Johnson, thus disposing of the rumor that he might give the job to Deep-Freeze Vaughan.

GIs And Hard ROKs

A few weeks ago newspapers carried dispatches from Korea setting forth the anxiety U. S. commanders felt over the GI nickname for all Koreans, southerners as well as northerners. In the lingo of American fighting men in the late Pacific war, any native brown-skinned person was a "gook." Too many Americans used the word contemptuously. Filipinos didn't like it, and neither do the South Koreans.

At the time we tried to think up a word short and snappy enough to make a good nickname without being likely to degenerate into a term of contempt or condescension. Americans like nicknames and are going to use them anyhow. It wouldn't be much use trying to persuade soldiers not to fling the word "gook" around carelessly—unless a better word could be found to take its place.

We hit upon the word "ROK" in reading the abbreviation "R. O. K." for Republic of Korea. How about calling the South Koreans ROKS? We felt we had something there, but didn't follow through at the time.

Now we see a dispatch from a correspondent in Korea that gives us that "maybe-we-thought-of-it-first" feeling. He writes a long piece in which Korean volunteers joining U. S. troops are called ROKS all the way through. Hard ROKS, too, many of these fighters seem to be. Somehow we think a tough little South Korean, fighting for his own homeland, will be glad to be a ROK beside a GI.

MacArthur's Warning

General MacArthur has warned the North Korean commander-in-chief that he will be held personally responsible for the practice of murdering disarmed prisoners "if not promptly corrected."

Such a warning presupposes a North Korean defeat. Leaders of victorious armies are never punished for atrocities. Charges of atrocities were made against the Russians in World War II by the Polish government-in-exile, but such cases were never brought to trial.

Enemy infiltration is a related problem faced by United States forces. It is standard for North Korean soldiers to don civilian clothes, pass through U. S. lines as refugees, and later attack them from the rear. That, of course, gives American forces the right to shoot them as spies.

Infiltration tactics have the effect of making GIs suspicious of genuine Korean refugees. Under these circumstances they tend to dislike all Koreans. It is somewhat tragic that ill feeling should exist between the victims of aggression and the men risking death to protect them. But this effect of infiltration tactics no doubt is pleasing to Moscow.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

The Pinworm Problem

MANY children have pinworms and afflicted youngsters often suffer from indigestion and intense itching. However, it is doubtful whether the parasites can be blamed for personality disturbances, irritability, weight loss, or juvenile delinquency. After all, the mere presence of worms does not prove the parasites are responsible for all our human ills.

They do cause discomfort, however, especially in the early evening after the child has gone to bed. The worms emerge from the rectum at this time to lay their eggs on the surrounding skin. This causes the youngster to scratch the area furiously, which is what Mother Nature intended because the pests are thus given an opportunity to complete their life cycle. As the victim scratches, some of the eggs adhere to the fingers or lodge beneath the nails. When contaminated hands are brought to the lips at a later time, a few of the ova are bound to enter the mouth and be swallowed. They pass through the stomach, hatch into adults and in no time are laying eggs.

Many of the eggs fall on the sheets and blankets and may be brushed to the floor. Studies have shown that entire households have become contaminated, the eggs reach the living room sofa and even the draperies. In this environment it is difficult for any member of the family to escape infestation. This explains why physicians often recommend treating everyone in the home after discovering that one youngster is a victim.

The irritation also may lead to restlessness, especially while asleep. It is conceivable that in the circumstances sleepwalking and talking can ensue. This is questionable because these conditions are noted in many who do not have pinworms. The parasites may invade the appendix and irritate the wall of the intestine, producing abdominal distress. Appendicitis has occurred and when it is removed, it is found to be alive with the parasites. The genitalia are involved occasionally in girls. Other symptoms of pinworm infestation include weight loss, pallor, anemia, nervousness, and nightmares.

The mother may be able to make the diagnosis when she responds to the cries of her offspring and finds the tiny worms crawling on the child's buttocks. The "critters" are round and whitish in color; they measure less than one-half inch in length and the mamas are two to three times the size of the laddies. As a rule, recovering the eggs offers the clew of infestation and this is done by swabbing the anal region with a cellophane tipped glass rod or an applicator covered with scotch tape. The eggs adhere to these substances and can be seen under microscope.

In eliminating the worms from the household, strict cleanliness is of the utmost importance. Daily bathing is essential and the hands should be scrubbed carefully, especially the nails. If reinfestation occurs because the child is careless, it is advisable to have him wear gloves or pajamas that are heavier than usual. The bed clothing should be boiled frequently. The application of an ammoniated mercury ointment to the itching area is helpful. The most successful internal medicines are tablets containing gentian violet or diphenan. Both are effective in killing worms, but the latter is tolerated better because it is less likely to produce nausea and vomiting. Enemas of salt water, soap, diluted vinegar, quinine, hexylresorcinol and quassia chip are useful because they discourage the female from laying eggs.

Too Much Military Encroachment On Civilian Government; Truman Believes Generals Should Win Wars; Air College Preaches Preventive Wars

Says DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — Inside fact about the White House crackdowns on Secretary of the Navy Matthews and General MacArthur is that the administration had been waiting for a chance to knock down the increasing eagerness of the military to encroach on the civilian branches of government.

A lot of things have been going on which the public doesn't know about, all pointing toward more and more military rule. One was the quiet attempt by Secretary of Defense Johnson to keep Guam under the military when it was supposed to go under a civilian governor July 1. Another is the Navy's attempt to hold on to the "trust islands" of the Pacific. Another has been General MacArthur's repeated attempts to dictate foreign policy.

Another flagrant intervention of the military into foreign policy was when eleven generals secretly went up to Congress and urged a $100,000,000 loan to Dictator Franco of Spain—despite the fact that their commander-in-chief in the White House had ruled against such a loan.

President Truman was icy cool with his Secretary of Defense when he heard of this. Unsmiling, he turned to Louey Johnson in Cabinet meeting and snapped: "And I don't want any more trips by you or your generals to Congress regarding a loan to Franco."

Generals Want War

The two public crackdowns were aimed directly at MacArthur, and indirectly at Johnson through his Secretary of the Navy. Actually, Secretary Matthews is a sincere, idealistic, lovable person, the top lay Catholic in the United States, and neither the State Department nor the White House wanted to hit him personally.

However, the statement by a Cabinet officer in favor of a preventive war, it was decided, had to be disavowed publicly. For it played directly into the hands of European propagandists, already partly successful in branding us as warmongers.

Another reason for the crackdown was that General Orvil Anderson, commander of the Air War College, at Maxwell Air Base, Montgomery, Ala., has been staging a series of lectures in which a preventive war is urged openly.

One of the distinguished speakers at the Air War College has been Father Edmund Walsh of Georgetown University, a friend of Secretary Matthews, who voiced almost the same preventive war idea as Matthews.

Another earlier speaker at the Air College was Brig. Gen. S. D. Grubbs, former commander at Maxwell, who, in an address before a civilian group in Montgomery during the Berlin blockade, urged an ultimatum to Russia that if the blockade was not lifted in 36 hours, we should declare war.

General Maxwell himself, speaking some time ago before the Kiwanis Club at Montgomery, indicated that he favored immediate war with Russia; and there has been concrete evidence that the General follows a deliberate program at the Air College aimed to indoctrinate students with the idea of an immediate attack.

All these matters have been reported to the White House from time to time; and as a result President Truman is determined that the original concept of military duty laid down by the founding fathers shall be followed, namely that it is the military's job to win wars not declare them.

NOTE —If the United States followed the advice of the generals in favor of an early war, it would appear—based on results in Korea—that the military are a long way from being prepared.

NOTE 2—A group of farsighted senators, led by Brien McMahon of Connecticut, have introduced a resolution calling for a disarmament conference to show the world that we would reduce armament if Russia would do the same. While they have no great illusions that Russia would reduce, they feel it important to keep his peaceful goal before the world.

Capital News Capsules

LECTURE IN LONDON — U. S. Ambassador Douglas has bawled out the British for talking rearmament but doing nothing. Last week he told Foreign Minister Bevin in very plain English that the United States was shocked at failure to call Parliament back into session. The Ambassador also told Bevin that Britain's current plan for rearmament is completely inadequate; that whereas the United States is calling up thousands of men, Britain is merely marking time.

BEVIN'S LAST CONFERENCE—British Foreign Minister Bevin has cabled Secretary Acheson asking a full review of Anglo-American policies for the Far East when Bevin comes to New York next month. This will be Bevin's last major conference as foreign minister of Great Britain. Among other things he will try to persuade the United States not to become embroiled with Chiang Kai-Shek and the Kuomintang any further. The reason: Communist China and the Kremlin are making tragic headway in calling this a war between the yellow races and the white race. Bevin feares we'll lose out all over Asia.

WARNING NEHRU—U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson has warned Prime Minister Nehru that he should call off his proposed trip to communist China. Peace-making efforts in Korea, our ambassador told the Prime Minister, should be left to the United Nations. If Nehru feels he wants to contribute, Henderson said, he should fly to Lake Success to head the Indian delegation . . . . Meanwhile the Kremlin is secretely currying favor with Nehru by offering large quantities of wheat to India's starving millions. The State Department, on the other hand, hasn't been able to get Congress to permit us to ship agricultural surpluses to India.

LOYALTY BEGINS AT HOME—Hard-hitting Tony Tauriello, the Congressman from Buffalo, N. Y., has made a unique appeal to Louey Johnson to resign as Secretary of Defense. Tauriello puts it on the ground of loyalty. . . . "The chief executive is loyal to his friends, loyal to his Cabinet officers, sometimes loyal to a fault," the Congressman wrote Johnson direct. "You should resign because you have lost your usefulness to him and you have lost your usefulness to the American people. Remember that loyalty works both ways. And if you are loyal to Mr. Truman in the true sense, you will act in his interest, not your own."

BASING-POINT ROW AGAIN—Senator Ed Johnson of Colorado and a sub-committee are trying to overrule a Supreme Court decision and a Presidential veto—in a most unusual way. Both the Court and the White House ruled emphatically against the basing-point system. But now, five senators, all violently probasing point, are giving a third-degree interrobation to the Federal Trade Commission, which must enforce the basing-point decision. Coaching the senators backstage is William Simon, a registered lobbyist for the basing-point business group.

MATTER OF FACT

By JOSEPH ALSOP

Baker Company

BAKER Company of the 27th Regiment's 1st Battalion was breakfasting in a cheerful mood. The morning was sunny but almost cool, and the men crowded hungrily into their front-line mess hall—a little rocky draw that gave protection from sniper fire. When the young company commander, Capt. Gordon Jung, joined the chow line he was greeted with comments on the good night just passed.

"Yes, we had a quiet day altogether," Jung reflectively replied.

Possibly Baker Company's standards of quietness have been influenced by their experience in Korea. In their first action, more than six weeks ago, they were overrun by six enemy tanks and more than 1,000 infantry. Rallied by Capt. Jung they held their position until they could retire in good order, and help the rest of the battalion wipe out the attackers. That day Capt. Jung earned a recommendation for the Distinguished Service Cross, and Baker Company learned that "we was better than they was," as a beardless Pfc. succintly explained.

At any rate, the reader must judge of this quiet day, which this reporter spent as Baker Company's guest. The day began at sun-up, after an agreeably successful little night battle during which a Baker Company bazooka team polished off an enemy self-propelled gun when "they were looking right down our throat," while the rifle platoons decimated a North Korean infantry battalion charging across the rice paddies just before dawn. And for the first hours of the day it really was pretty quiet.

Comparative Peace

To be sure, a constant rattle of firing came down from the high mountain peak on the left flank, which the South Koreans were holding. To be sure, our mortars and the enemy's sometimes rather languidly lobbed shots back and forth. But in Baker Company's command post, in a leafy persimmon grove overlooking no-man's land, there was comparative peace.

While those on duty maintained the alert, most of the company's 140 men and five officers slept on the hard ground, or gossiped of past fighting, or cleaned their weapons. The day's real work began rather disconcertingly in mid-afternoon.

The firing on the flanking mountain peak had long been growing less intense when suddenly South Korean troops began to filter through Baker Company lines. With a strong enemy force moving onto the heights above, the position instantly became critical. While more and more starveling South Koreans drifted in, the battalion was notified; a full alert was sounded; and a South Korean officer was rounded up. The young Korean lieutenant haltingly but defiantly explained that his men had been "to many days" on the mountain without enough food or water or even ammunition. Meanwhile, Charley Company, farther down the line reported enemy infantry already attacking them.

The battalion spoke. All companies were to rally all South Koreans in their positions, offering food, promising heavy artillery support, urging them to retake their mountain peak. With infinite difficulty and patience, Jung explained all this. The Korean lieutenant nodded curtly, called to his men, and led them back up the hill. Our mortars began their screaming in dead earnest, the 155 mm. howitzers boomed angrily, and the mountain peak was veiled in silvery and brown puffs of white phosporous and high explosives. There was a long, anxious wait. At last the enemy fled. The flank was secure again.

By then supper was over. Capt. Jung, his face a little drawn, gave his instructions to his platoon leaders. The battalion had just rather grimly announced a heavy enemy attack on the artillery batteries and main supply road in the rear. But the threat of being cut off seemed to worry Jung much less than the

The coal industry faces trouble because it is outpriced in relationship to its competitors.

This is the language of despair, spoken by John T. Jones, president of District 16 of the United Mine Workers:

"The thousands of American coal miners in my district who might be working if coal were producing the energy now being produced by cheap foreign fuel oil, think it far more important that they be working and producing than the American taxpayers' dollars be used to finance a great program of expansion in foreign oil production and refining facilities. They are well aware that those much-needed dollars that the proponents of this plan (Point Four) talk about go into the pockets of the six big oil-importing oil companies, five of which are American - owned. They also know that most of the dollars that remain in those foreign countries are paid to the ruling class in the form of royalties and very little of it trickles down to the working men and women of those countries. . . "

Now, actually, coal was outpriced by the United Mine Workers with the object of giving miners and their families a living wage and safer working conditions. Even if one accepts John L. Lewis's own interpretation of his motives and conduct, it will in no way affect the competition between coal and oil, and between coal and natural gas. Even if one accepts John L. Lewis's bitterness against the politicians as correct, his strike judgment was only correct on a short-term basis. He drove a nation away from his commodity.

In a free economic system, in which competing products appear within the price range abandoned by what was regarded as a primary product, obsolescence cannot be protected. I notice in the chain stores a new commodity of dishes, cutlery and table accessories, in many colors, not readily breakable, which is taking the place of paperware and breakable chinaware for picnics and similar outdoor activities. It is made of some kind of plastic and is serviceable. In a word, if one watches, new products, in durable goods or consumer's goods, push into the market in a free economy and replace what came before.

The neo-Luddites would keep obsolescense in the market. They are, you may recall, named after those journeymen and apprentices in England who set out to destroy the first power-driven machinery. They did destroy some, but they could not destroy the concept of power-driven machinery any more than we can stop the march toward automatic machinery or atomic power.

True, each new development in production raises problems for some capitalists, management and workers, and a new means of production, such as the automatic "thinking" system of machines, will create social problems of major magnitude Professor Norbert Wiener of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who conceives these automatic monsters, is not the first person to be frightened by the consequences of his genius. He has blueprinted the social effcts of these machines upon our society.

No one can, with certainty even forecast the prospects for us that may come from atomic power. The difficulties now are mechanical, not social; the problem is to contain the power in practical vessels and the inference is that great ocean liners may be the first to use such power practically. But it is foreseeable that some day atomic power may do to oil and natural gas what products have already done to coal.

Then we shall, in civilized societies, be faced by the social problems of organized life that requires few to labor in industry producing ample supplies for what may be a permanent state of over-population. Such social problems are vexing, because they do not invite workable practical solutions All the great minds from Hammurabi and Wang An-Shih to Karl Marx and Oscar Ewing have had pat solutions, which somehow do not satisfy the human craving for leisure and independence and productivity. Most of the human race is so constituted that men dislike being drones. The fingers itch to do.

Meyersdale Man Electrocuted As He Moves Cable

Co-Worker Says He Heard Explosion

A Meyersdale, Pa., man attempting to remove an abandoned power cable leading to a clay mine was killed instantly yesterday two miles west of Frostburg when he came in contact with a transformer.

Dr. H. V. Deming, deputy county medical examiner, said Grant Baker, 37, was accidentally killed by electrocution. Authorities said the transformer carries a 12,000 volt current.

Robert D. Cook, Frostburg, who was working with Baker, told police the victim had climbed a pole to loosen the abandoned cable. Cook said he heard an explosion and then found Baker lying on the ground.

State Trooper Paul Long, who investigated the accident, said he found two fuses in the transformer burned out. Authorities said Baker died instantly.

Both men were working for the Mt. Savage Refractories Company at the time, and had been detailed to remove the cable which once was used to operate power equipment at an abandoned strip mine.

Baker is survived by his widow, the former Hattie Mae McLaughlin, and one daughter, Alice Joan, 9.

He was a son of the late Harvey Lee and Margaret Shunk Baker. He was a member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Local Laboratory

Of the 200 blood specimens, 100 were from known cases of syphilis while the remaining 100 were from presumably normal individuals.

The Cumberland Branch Laboratory diagnosed correctly each of the 100 specimens from cases of syphilis, while tests of the samples from normal individuals were 98.5 per cent accurate.

Tests of the same specimens were made by the Federal Venereal Diseases Control Laboratory at Atlanta, Ga., to certify accuracy of results, Dr. Frantz said.

W. Arnold Gunther, state bacteriologist, has been in charge of the local laboratory since it opened in 1915, the first of its kind in Maryland and among the first in the nation.

The laboratory occupied quarters in the basement of City Hall until the 1936 flood, when it was moved to its present location on the third floor of the Public Safety Building.

Gunther's staff now comprises three bacteriologists, one laboratory assistant, a laboratory helper and a secretary.

The three graduate bacteriologists have all received from three to six months' special training in Baltimore.

Approximately 70,000 examinations of all types of specimens are made each year at the laboratory, which is now one of 15 in the state.

Tests include blood chemistry, blood counts, and bacteriological testing of water, milk and foods for both the Allegany and Garrett County Health Departments.

Primary purpose of the Cumberland Branch Laboratory is to assist physicians in the diagnosis and control of reportable diseases, including typhoid, tuberculosis and venereal diseases.

Clinical laboratory work is also done for medically indigent persons.

Methods Standardized

The same test methods are used here as in the state laboratory at Baltimore, which has standardized methods for all branch laboratories.

For many years, Dr. Frantz said, continuous evaluation of work at the local laboratory has been done by the State Bureau of Bacteriology.

Some years ago the State Department of Health conducted a voluntary survey in about 21 medical and public health laboratories in the state to check accuracy of blood tests for syphilis.

Blood specimens were sent to the laboratories volunteering to make the tests, and the percentage of those making accurate tests was "very small", Dr. Frantz said.

"But our laboratory here made a high percentage of accuracy, within the 10 per cent margin allowed by the federal VD Research Laboratory at Atlanta," Dr. Frantz said.

As a result of the survey, the State Legislature passed a law about 12 years ago requiring all laboratories in Maryland to be certified by the State Department of Health.

During and since World War II, the Atlanta laboratory has been supplying various states with specimens from all over the world to enable recognition and treatment of ususual diseases which servicemen might have contracted while in foreign countries.

For example, specimens of tsetse flies and different species of mosquitoes and flies are sent to the local laboratory for identification.

An indexed library of slides identifying the specimens has been set up here to aid diagnostic work.

Mahoney Rally

"I advised Mr. Prendergast to remember that Hall Hammond, the present attorney general and J. Millard Tawes, present comptroller, a one-time favorite of Mr. Prendergast's, were both supporting Governor Lane for re-election; that the record of Lane, Tawes and Hammond constitutes the record of the Democratic Party in Maryland and that his fanatical and misleading attacks on that record are in reality attacks on the Democratic Party, a party to which Mr. Prendergast claims membership.

"I further advised Mr. Prendergast to introduce Mr. Mahoney himself."

Norma Bucy To Become Bride Of Sherman Wigfield

Ceremony To Be Performed Tonight

Miss Norma June Bucy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clayton Bucy, 898 Ridgedale Avenue, will become the bride of Sherman J. Wigfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shay Wigfield, Williams Road, at 7:30 tonight.

The double ring ceremony is to be solemnized at 7:30 p. m., in Grace Baptist Church, with Rev. W. Randolph Keefe, Jr., officiating. Bouquets of white gladioli are being used in the decorations.

Miss Mary Jane Walton is to be the bride's maid of honor and Miss Madeline Cooper, her bridesmaid. James Stemple will serve as Mr. Wigfield's best man while William Wigfield and Raymond Long are the ushers.

Mrs. Morris Moon is to sing, "O Promise Me," "Through the Years," and "I Love You Truly." She will be accompanied by Miss Mary Robb, who will also play a program of nuptial music, preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding processional from the opera Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride, who is being given in marriage by her father, is wearing a gown of white ninon, fashioned with a portrait neckline, a large full collar which falls over the shoulders and a hoop skirt with insets of Chantilly lace. With it she is wearing ninon mitts, tapering to a point on the hand; and a fingertip length veil of illusion with a Mary Queen of Scotts headdress, tapering to a point on the forehead. For her "something borrowed" the bride is wearing her mother's double strand of pearls, as her only ornament. An old fashioned bouquet of pale yellow rosebuds completes her costume.

Her attendants are wearing gowns made complementary to her's with net yokes and hoop skirts caught up in scallops with rosebuds. Their mitts and halo headdress of veiling match their gowns and they are carrying old fashioned bouquets of assorted flowers. Miss Walton will be in blue and Miss Cooper, in yellow.

Mrs. Bucy has chosen a toast colored suit, with wheat straw hat, trimmed in tiny pink rosebuds, and green accessories for her daughter's wedding. With it she is wearing a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Wigfield is to be attired in a green dress with black accessories and is wearing a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Allegany High School, class of 1949 and Catherman's Business School. Her fiancee attended Fort Hill High School and Catherman's Business School. A member of the Naval Reserve, he is employed by the Hazelwood Construction Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucy are entertaining with a wedding reception honoring their daughter and her bridal party, at their home, following the ceremony. The bridal motif is to be carried out in the decorations of white crepe paper streamers and wedding bells in the archway and a tiered wedding cake adorned with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Wigfield will serve the cake and Mrs. Bucy is presiding at the punch bowl.

For their motor trip east the bride is wearing a Navy blue suit, with Navy accessories, white hat, blouse and gloves and a corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return Mr. Wigfield and his bride will reside at 707 Maryland Avenue .

Miss Walton and Miss Shirley Stitcher entertained in complement to Miss Bucy with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at Miss Stitcher's home, North Centre Street. A pink and blue color scheme was combined with white wedding bells in the decorations. A heart shaped cake centered the table and pink and blue candles were at either end. The same color scheme was used for the umbrella concealing the shower gifts.

Games were played during the evening and prizes awarded to the honor guest, Miss Arlene Coughenour and Miss Shirley Weaver. Other guests were Miss Lou Ann Wright, Miss Rita Nine, Miss Ronelda Smith and Miss Marjorie Daniels.

Wanda Lee Loeber Names Sept. 1 For Wedding Date

To Be Bride Of Donald G. Shrout

Miss Wanda Lee Loeber, fiancee of Donald Gene Shrout, has selected September 1 for the date of their marriage.

The wedding ceremony will be solemnized at 7:30 p. m., in Emmanuel Episcopal Church with Rev. H. Maunsell Richardson officiating. Mrs. Joan Stroup is to be the bride's matron of honor and only attendant and John Ray Hinkle will serve as Mr. Strout's best man.

The bride-elect daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Loeber, 220 North Lee Street is a gradute of Allegany High School, class of 1947. While there she belonged to the Dancing Club, Choral Club and the Art Club. She is employed by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company.

Mr. Shrout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shrout, 703 Lincoln Street, is also a graduate of Allegany High School. A veteran of one year service in the Navy, he is a member of the Naval Reserve and is employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company in Petersburg, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Loeber will be hosts for a wedding reception honoring their daughter and her bridal party at the Fort Cumberland Hotel, following the ceremony. After which Mr. Shrout and his bride will leave for a trip South.

Miss Rogers Honored At Shower Party

Mrs. James Grosh entertained with a miscellaneous shower and pre-nuptial party in complement to Miss Yvonne Rogers, Tuesday night at her home, 601 Hill Top Drive.

Miss Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Rogers, 915 Ridgedale Avenue, is to become the bride of Harold E. Shelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shelley, East Liverpool, Ohio, Saturday. Rev. Norman O. Scribner will officiate at the ceremony at 2 o'clock in Centre Street Methodist Church.

A pink and white color scheme was used throughout. Pink and white crepe paper streamers cascaded from a sprinkling can to the buffet where the shower gifts were arranged. The same color scheme was repeated in the miniature umbrella favors and gold wedding band tallies.

Bridge and canasta were played during the evening with Mrs. Rogers winner at the former and Miss Rogers at canasta.

Other guests were Miss Margaret Reid, Miss Jane Ebert, Miss Mary Lou Sanner, Mrs. Thorner Smith, Mrs. Paul Reid and Mrs. Luther Grosh.

Jack Palmer Is Honored At Party

Miss Earlene Hardman entertained in honor of her brother-in-law, Jack Palmer 3/sf., Tuesday night at her home, 431 Chestnut Street.

Canasta featured the entertainment during the evening and prizes were won by the honor guest, Marshall Sowers and Mrs. John Dorn.

A patriotic motif was carried out in the decorations by the hostess, who centered her table with an arrangement of red, white and blue flowers and a small boat with a miniature sailor. Red, white and blue streamers extended from the flowers to the name plates and smaller boats were the favors. Assorted summer flowers were used throughout the house.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Hardman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardman, John Dorn and Mrs. Jack Palmer.

Miss Amato, J. S. Benton Are Wed

Announcement has been made of the mariage of Miss Filomena Ann Amato, daughter of Mrs. Angelina Amato, 10 Blocker Street, Ridgeley, and the late Mr. Amato, to Joseph Sudler Benton, son of Mrs. Henry Earl Benton, New Castle, Del. The ceremony was performed August 26, in the Cresaptown Methodist Church with Rev. Raymond Crowe officiating. Miss Mary Amato and Joseph Amato were the attendants.

The bride wore a cream colored gabardine suit with luggage accessories and her attendant wore a Kelly green suit with white accessories.

A graduate of Ridgeley High School and Catherman's Business School, the bride is employed on the secretarial staff of the Celanese Corporation of America.

The bridegroom is a gradaute of the Wilmington, Del., High School, and is engineer for the City of Wilmington. He also is first vice president of the Delaware Volunteer Firemen's Association and a lieutenant in the Coast Guard Reserve.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside in New Castle.

Norma Bucy To Become Bride Of Sherman Wigfield

Ceremony To Be Performed Tonight

Miss Norma June Bucy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clayton Bucy, 898 Ridgedale Avenue, will become the bride of Sherman J. Wigfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shay Wigfield, Williams Road, at 7:30 tonight.

The double ring ceremony is to be solemnized at 7:30 p. m., in Grace Baptist Church, with Rev. W. Randolph Keefe, Jr., officiating. Bouquets of white gladioli are being used in the decorations.

Miss Mary Jane Walton is to be the bride's maid of honor and Miss Madeline Cooper, her bridesmaid. James Stemple will serve as Mr. Wigfield's best man while William Wigfield and Raymond Long are the ushers.

Mrs. Morris Moon is to sing, "O Promise Me," "Through the Years," and "I Love You Truly." She will be accompanied by Miss Mary Robb, who will also play a program of nuptial music, preceding the ceremony and the traditional wedding processional from the opera Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride, who is being given in marriage by her father, is wearing a gown of white ninon, fashioned with a portrait neckline, a large full collar which falls over the shoulders and a hoop skirt with insets of Chantilly lace. With it she is wearing ninon mitts, tapering to a point on the hand; and a fingertip length veil of illusion with a Mary Queen of Scotts headdress, tapering to a point on the forehead. For her "something borrowed" the bride is wearing her mother's double strand of pearls, as her only ornament. An old fashioned bouquet of pale yellow rosebuds completes her costume.

Her attendants are wearing gowns made complementary to her's with net yokes and hoop skirts caught up in scallops with rosebuds. Their mitts and halo headdress of veiling match their gowns and they are carrying old fashioned bouquets of assorted flowers. Miss Walton will be in blue and Miss Cooper, in yellow.

Mrs. Bucy has chosen a toast colored suit, with wheat straw hat, trimmed in tiny pink rosebuds, and green accessories for her daughter's wedding. With it she is wearing a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Wigfield is to be attired in a green dress with black accessories and is wearing a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Allegany High School, class of 1949 and Catherman's Business School. Her fiancee attended Fort Hill High School and Catherman's Business School. A member of the Naval Reserve, he is employed by the Hazelwood Construction Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucy are entertaining with a wedding reception honoring their daughter and her bridal party, at their home, following the ceremony. The bridal motif is to be carried out in the decorations of white crepe paper streamers and wedding bells in the archway and a tiered wedding cake adorned with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Wigfield will serve the cake and Mrs. Bucy is presiding at the punch bowl.

For their motor trip east the bride is wearing a Navy blue suit, with Navy accessories, white hat, blouse and gloves and a corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return Mr. Wigfield and his bride will reside at 707 Maryland Avenue .

Miss Walton and Miss Shirley Stitcher entertained in complement to Miss Bucy with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening at Miss Stitcher's home, North Centre Street. A pink and blue color scheme was combined with white wedding bells in the decorations. A heart shaped cake centered the table and pink and blue candles were at either end. The same color scheme was used for the umbrella concealing the shower gifts.

Games were played during the evening and prizes awarded to the honor guest, Miss Arlene Coughenour and Miss Shirley Weaver. Other guests were Miss Lou Ann Wright, Miss Rita Nine, Miss Ronelda Smith and Miss Marjorie Daniels.

Jack Palmer Is Honored At Party

Miss Earlene Hardman entertained in honor of her brother-in-law, Jack Palmer 3/sf., Tuesday night at her home, 431 Chestnut Street.

KINNEY'S 56 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE AMERICAN FAMILY

119 Baltimore St.

Washington Whirl

By AUSTINE

Once upon a time there were three little boys—Tom, Dick and Harry... They lived on a farm in the country and with plain names like that you wouldn't think they would reach world fame . . . But they have . . . And Virginians say it's because good blood will out . . . Certainly no bluer blood runs than in the veins of "The Byrds of Virginia" . . . They have been men of culture and achievement since early Colonial America, when William Byrd of Westover assembled the finest private library in the colonies.

Lean, browned Admiral Richard Byrd battled the cold and loneliness on his Arctic explorations . . . Chubby, pink-cheeked Brother Harry battles in the Senate the hot fight against bureaucracy, government waste and—The Welfare State.

AUSTINE.

By SENATOR HARRY F. BYRD

DO YOU TALK on the telephone . . . drive a car? Do you smoke . . . drink? Do you wear hose . . . use a handbag? Do you go to the movies . . . use electric lights? Do you mow the lawn . . . pay a grocery bill?

Do you think when your withholding taxes are deducted . . . when you have filed your tax returns . . . when you have paid the tax bills to local, state and federal governments . . . that you have paid in full your account with the government.

SENATOR BYRD

No! They are only the taxes for which the government gives you receipts!

But every day is tax day for the kind of taxes which are hidden in your sales tickets. You know they are there, but do you recognize them? Some of the so-called excise taxes are advertised and spelled out, but other taxes which are passed on to you are not.

The other day I came across an unofficial estimate of some of these sales ticket taxes, including the so-called excises. They are not my estimates, and I cannot personally vouch for them, but they appear to be about right when you take into consideration all the federal, state and local taxes which are passed on in the prices of things you buy. I mention some of these estimates so you can check them for yourself: 9c in the price of a package of cigarettes, 11c in the price of a gallon of gasoline, 20c in 50c movie ticket.

8c in the price of a quart of milk, $1.75 in a $5 light bill.

25c in a 75c cent of meat, 50c in the price of $1.50 hose, $5 in a $15 ton of coal.

$700 in a $2100 automobile, $20 in a $60 a month rent bill, $1 in a $3 telephone bill.

$1 in a $3 pair of baby shoes, $75 in a $225 refriegrator, $7 in a $21 lawn mower.

$5 in a $15 handbag, $2 in a $3 bottle of whiskey, $3,000 in a $10,000 house and 5c in a 15c loaf of bread.

• — • — •

These estimates include, of course, that part of corporate and other taxes imposed on business which are passed along in all of the things you buy.

You can see how much of your income goes for taxes—direct and indirect, obvious and hidden. But this still is not enough. Nearly all governments are operating in the red.

If you have a child reaching his majority next year, he will have lived 19 of his 21 years under a Federal government spending more than its income!

This is despite all of the so-called federal excise taxes we have been hearing so much about . . . and they are high; so high, in fact, that we are paying the Federal Government almost as much in them as we are paying in all state taxes.

But, if we reduce them and don't reduce the spending by the Federal Government, we must increase direct taxes on you through withholding or some other form of income taxes, increase the corporation taxes on business, or increase the federal debt.

If we increase the income and payroll taxes, your income is reduced accordingly. If we increase the corporation or business taxes you may expect it to be reflected in the price of things you buy.

If we increase the federal debt it will be in addition to the quarter of a trillion dollars which is already outstanding.

• — • — •

Some of the self-styled Washington economists tell us to go ahead and increase the debt . . . we merely owe it to ourselves. Yes, we owe it to ourselves in the war bonds we hold, in our savings which the banks have invested in government bonds, in our insurance which insurance companies have invested in government bonds, in our social security contributions which the government has invested in its own bonds.

We owe it to ourselves now . . . and we would owe it to ourselves if the debt ever reaches a point where we can pay it off dollar for dollar. Reducing federal spending seems to be safer and wiser, especially since federal expenditures for domestic-civilian programs are more than $5 billion higher than they were two years ago in 1948, and $5 billon is about equal to the President's estimate of the deficit.

The domestic-civilian expenditures to which I refer are exclusive of all expenditures related to wars or rumors of wars.

Why yearn for a wardrobe of clothes with the quality look? Follow today's advice and you will have one!

SECRETS OF CHARM

by JOHN ROBERT POWERS

THAT hankered-after quality look is one most women could achieve this year with just about half of their usual clothing allowance if they would seriously plan their next season's purchases now.

It's especially easy to do this season because the quality look is woven right into the new cloths for coats, suits and dresses as at no time since before World War II, and the materials you choose, more than any other style factor, are what determine your success.

You'll find that the new textures are lucious and rich, brushed into deep piles or smoothed into velvety surfaces. While daytime fabrics have a casual feeling following a mounting trend for easy, wearable clothes, they do not lose in elegance by their nonchalance. After-five fabrics are definitely super elegant.

For Your New Coat

Your first decision should be on the fabric of your coat. Your coat is not only the most expensive item on your list, but it must be chosen with insight so that it will look as though it had been ensembled with everything else in your wardrobe and with your figure type, too. For flattering your figure, keep your coat fabric velvety if you are short or heavy; thick-piled only if you are tall or thin.

The fashion-future coatings are: fleeces, bolivas, brushed tweed; velour and velvet for after-five wear. Suitings follow right along with the addition of textured flannel and garbardines.

The big news in daytime dress goods is the knit influence; machine-made fabrics look hand-knit or hand-woven. You'll find jerseys, Kashas and tweeds in the news, too. After-five dress fabrics provide the splendor of satin-backed crepe, pure silk, ottoman, bengaline, faille, and velvet, of course. Add to this a whole range of sheers: chiffon-weight broadcloth, alpaca, taffeta, nylon crepe and chiffon itself.

Blending Your Wardrobe

Keeping the above in mind, all you have to do is pick a suiting and a dress material that will complement your coat fabric. In many cases you will find this co-ordination already worked out for you with coatings and suitings that are designed to be worn together in both type and color. For example, there are monotone wools co-ordinated with checks, plaids and stripes, and reversible coatings (double-faced) with suitings to match the inside surface.

You don't need a fortune to own beautiful clothes with a quality look that will combine handsomely for every possible occasion. All you need is to work the above information into your own, personal wardrobe plan! What could be easier?

SCOTCH PLAID WILL HELP MAKE UP SCHOOL OUTFITS FOR JOE COLLEGE AND HIS LITTLE BROTHER THIS FALL

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Joe College and his little brother are almost sure to have a touch of Scotch plaid in their school outfits this fall.

The more conservative types will settle for a plaid bow tie or sweater vest, the more daring ones will go for plaid slacks, sports coats and dinner jackets.

Plaid sports shirts will be much in evidence, as usual, but this year authentic tartans are the rule.

A recent poll of 21 colleges throughout the country, conducted by Isidore Grossman, head of the New York Clothing Manufacturers Exchange, revealed these further facts about the average college man's taste:

The two-button, single-breasted suit is top style choice.

Tan is the favorite campus color, with gray next.

The fly-front, flap-pocketed top-coat in tan of gray covert is a universal college choice.

Slacks, sweaters and sports shirts are required equipment.

Dark blue flannel blazers will be popular in many sections of the country.

Ties are longer and narrower, the Windsor knot still in high favor.

Plaid dinner jackets are gaining wide acceptance, worn with plain black dress trousers. Alternate choices are plaid cummerbunds or vests worn with the conventional black or midnight blue.

Regional differences reveal that Eastern college men prefer gray flannels, Midwesterners go for navy gabardine, Westerners for tweeds and Southerners for tan tropical worsteds.

In Europe, the custom of executing prisoners on Friday dates from the Middle Ages, when it was known as hangman's day.

Theoretically, odor has weight, although no one has been able to measure it.

Peaches—$1.49, $1.98, $2.49 bushel. Bring baskets. Tractor-Trailer loads arriving each morning. Excelo and Hager's at Lover's Leap.

Washington Whirl

By AUSTINE

Once upon a time there were three little boys—Tom, Dick and Harry... They lived on a farm in the country and with plain names like that you wouldn't think they would reach world fame . . . But they have . . . And Virginians say it's because good blood will out . . . Certainly no bluer blood runs than in the veins of "The Byrds of Virginia" . . . They have been men of culture and achievement since early Colonial America, when William Byrd of Westover assembled the finest private library in the colonies.

Lean, browned Admiral Richard Byrd battled the cold and loneliness on his Arctic explorations . . . Chubby, pink-cheeked Brother Harry battles in the Senate the hot fight against bureaucracy, government waste and—The Welfare State.

AUSTINE.

By SENATOR HARRY F. BYRD

DO YOU TALK on the telephone . . . drive a car? Do you smoke . . . drink? Do you wear hose . . . use a handbag? Do you go to the movies . . . use electric lights? Do you mow the lawn . . . pay a grocery bill?

Do you think when your withholding taxes are deducted . . . when you have filed your tax returns . . . when you have paid the tax bills to local, state and federal governments . . . that you have paid in full your account with the government.

SENATOR BYRD

No! They are only the taxes for which the government gives you receipts!

But every day is tax day for the kind of taxes which are hidden in your sales tickets. You know they are there, but do you recognize them? Some of the so-called excise taxes are advertised and spelled out, but other taxes which are passed on to you are not.

The other day I came across an unofficial estimate of some of these sales ticket taxes, including the so-called excises. They are not my estimates, and I cannot personally vouch for them, but they appear to be about right when you take into consideration all the federal, state and local taxes which are passed on in the prices of things you buy. I mention some of these estimates so you can check them for yourself: 9c in the price of a package of cigarettes, 11c in the price of a gallon of gasoline, 20c in 50c movie ticket.

8c in the price of a quart of milk, $1.75 in a $5 light bill.

25c in a 75c cent of meat, 50c in the price of $1.50 hose, $5 in a $15 ton of coal.

$700 in a $2100 automobile, $20 in a $60 a month rent bill, $1 in a $3 telephone bill.

$1 in a $3 pair of baby shoes, $75 in a $225 refriegrator, $7 in a $21 lawn mower.

$5 in a $15 handbag, $2 in a $3 bottle of whiskey, $3,000 in a $10,000 house and 5c in a 15c loaf of bread.

• — • — •

These estimates include, of course, that part of corporate and other taxes imposed on business which are passed along in all of the things you buy.

You can see how much of your income goes for taxes—direct and indirect, obvious and hidden. But this still is not enough. Nearly all governments are operating in the red.

If you have a child reaching his majority next year, he will have lived 19 of his 21 years under a federal government spending more than its income!

This is despite all of the so-called federal excise taxes we have been hearing so much about . . . and they are high; so high, in fact, that we are paying the Federal Government almost as much in them as we are paying in all state taxes.

But, if we reduce them and don't reduce the spending by the Federal Government, we must increase direct taxes on you through withholding or some other form of income taxes, increase the corporation taxes on business, or increase the federal debt.

If we increase the income and payroll taxes, your income is reduced accordingly. If we increase the corporation or business taxes you may expect it to be reflected in the price of things you buy.

If we increase the federal debt it will be in addition to the quarter of a trillion dollars which is already outstanding.

• — • — •

Some of the self-styled Washington economists tell us to go ahead and increase the debt . . . we merely owe it to ourselves. Yes, we owe it to ourselves in the war bonds we hold, in our savings which the banks have invested in government bonds, in our insurance which insurance companies have invested in government bonds, in our social security contributions which the government has invested in its own bonds.

We owe it to ourselves now . . . and we would owe it to ourselves if the debt ever reaches a point where we can pay it off dollar for dollar. Reducing federal spending seems to be safer and wiser, especially since federal expenditures for domestic-civilian programs are more than $5 billion higher than they were two years ago in 1948, and $5 billon is about equal to the President's estimate of the deficit.

The domestic-civilian expenditures to which I refer are exclusive of all expenditures related to wars or rumors of wars.

Why yearn for a wardrobe of clothes with the quality look? Follow today's advice and you will have one!

SECRETS OF CHARM

by JOHN ROBERT POWERS

THAT hankered-after quality look is one most women could achieve this year with just about half of their usual clothing allowance if they would seriously plan their next season's purchases now.

It's especially easy to do this season because the quality look is woven right into the new cloths for coats, suits and dresses as at no time since before World War II, and the materials you choose, more than any other style factor, are what determine your success.

You'll find that the new textures are lucious and rich, brushed into deep piles or smoothed into velvety surfaces. While daytime fabrics have a casual feeling following a mounting trend for easy, wearable clothes, they do not lose in elegance by their nonchalance. After-five fabrics are definitely super elegant.

For Your New Coat

Your first decision should be on the fabric of your coat. Your coat is not only the most expensive item on your list, but it must be chosen with insight so that it will look as though it had been ensembled with everything else in your wardrobe and with your figure type, too. For flattering your figure, keep your coat fabric velvety if you are short or heavy; thick-piled only if you are tall or thin.

The fashion-future coatings are: fleeces, bolivas, brushed tweed; velour and velvet for after-five wear. Suitings follow right along with the addition of textured flannel and garbardines.

The big news in daytime dress goods is the knit influence; machine-made fabrics look hand-knit or hand-woven. You'll find jerseys, Kashas and tweeds in the news, too. After-five dress fabrics provide the splendor of satin-backed crepe, pure silk, ottoman, bengaline, faille, and velvet, of course. Add to this a whole range of sheers: chiffon-weight broadcloth, alpaca, taffeta, nylon crepe and chiffon itself.

Blending Your Wardrobe

Keeping the above in mind, all you have to do is pick a suiting and a dress material that will complement your coat fabric. In many cases you will find this co-ordination already worked out for you with coatings and suitings that are designed to be worn together in both type and color. For example, there are monotone wools co-ordinated with checks, plaids and stripes, and reversible coatings (double-faced) with suitings to match the inside surface.

You don't need a fortune to own beautiful clothes with a quality look that will combine handsomely for every possible occasion. All you need is to work the above information into your own, personal wardrobe plan! What could be easier?

SCOTCH PLAID WILL HELP MAKE UP SCHOOL OUTFITS FOR JOE COLLEGE AND HIS LITTLE BROTHER THIS FALL

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Joe College and his little brother are almost sure to have a touch of Scotch plaid in their school outfits this fall.

The more conservative types will settle for a plaid bow tie or sweater vest, the more daring ones will go for plaid slacks, sports coats and dinner jackets.

Plaid sports shirts will be much in evidence, as usual, but this year authentic tartans are the rule.

Officials Probe Sewage Problem

Efforts are being made to eliminate a health menace caused by sewer pipes broken during excavation for the flood control project on Valley and Furnace Streets.

City officials, the U. S. Corps of Engineers and a representative group of the section inspected the site yesterday in an attempt to arrive at some conclusion and give relief immediately.

Valley and Furnace Street residents registered a protest with the Mayor and Council Monday and asked that the flood project work be expedited. The broken sewer pipes, residents said, "constitutes a health menace. The stagnation is also intensifying the mosquito menace."

Opened In Three Weeks

Meeting in the office of Mayor Thomas S. Post yesterday were the Mayor, City Attorney W. Earle Cobey, Thomas F. Dickson, engineer in charge, U. S. Corps of Engineers; Albert S. Paye, liaison engineer for the city with the engineers; James A. Wiant, Valley Street, Aaron Ruppert, 312 Furnace Street; and Charles Wolz, 310 Valley Street.

The group was told that any negotiations must be with the contractor, George and Lynch, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

Dickson said that Furnace Street would be opened in about three weeks. This allows two weeks for the completion of a backfill and one week for laying of a temporary pavement.

Dickson also noted a plan is under consideration to open up a sanitary sewer by running pipe under properties between 411-417 Furnace Street. This, he said, would relieve the problem. Meanwhile, he said, excess sewerage which is exposed and has been causing the health menace is being pumped away.

But the resident group said pumping apparently is having little effect and added the situation is as bad as ever.

At the suggestion of Cobey, Dickson said oil could be put on the affected areas.

Scout Membership At All-Time High

There are more Boy Scouts and Cubs in Potomac Council now than at any time in its history, according to a report released by Willis V. Smith, council executive, in the council's monthly news letter.

The total membership of the council, which covered Allegany and Garrett Counties, and Mineral, Hampshire, Grant and Hardy Counties in West Virginia is 1,406.

In the 16 Cub Packs, there are 418 boys, while in the 40 troops there are 614 Boy Scouts. Explorer Scouts number 374.

Area Soldier Has South Korean Buddy

Pfc. Frank H. Densmore of Woodland, near Frostburg, is one of many American soldiers who have found friends among the South Koreans, according to Richard K. Tucker, Baltimore war correspondent.

Pfc. Densmore, a radio operator with a cable company, has a new South Korean buddy he calls Jim instead of his more difficult given name. These South Koreans, once police carrying carbines, are now scattered thinly through platoons of Pfc. Densmore's battalion.

Next Door Neighbors Fighting In Korea

Next door neighbors on Crawford Street are taking part in the fighting in Korea.

They are Cpl. John Edward Roby, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Roby, 306 Crawford Street, and Glen Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nixon, 304 Crawford Street.

City Still Considered As Quartermaster Site

Cumberland is still in the running as a possible site for the Quartermaster research laboratory to be built by the government, according to David Kauffman, chairman of the Steering Committee for Economic Development in Allegany County.

Kauffman said he was advised of the situation Tuesday by Senator Millard E. Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Tdyings said he was told by William Webster, chairman of the Research and Development Board of the Department of Defense, that material submitted by the Cumberland area is being studied along with a large number of other proposals. Data on all sites is being gathered for consideration September 15, Webster added.

It erroneously reported, Kauffman said, that the proposed laboratory site would be near Charleston, S. C.

Postal Clerks Plan Meeting In Frederick

One hundred and thirty delegates are expected to register for the 13th biennial convention of the Maryland State Branch, United National Association of Post Office Clerks, Saturday and Sunday in the Francis Scott Key Hotel, Frederick.

Rep. J. Glenn Beall has been invited to speak at a dinner Saturday in the hotel ballroom.

How much energy a ship expends on a given trip can be measured by an electrical instrument. The device will keep a continuous check on the performance of ships' power plants, enabling operators to select the most economical speeds for the plants, and indicating when the ships could be drydocked because of drag caused by fouled hulls.

Officials Probe Sewage Problem

Efforts are being made to eliminate a health menace caused by sewer pipes broken during excavation for the flood control project on Valley and Furnace Streets.

City officials, the U. S. Corps of Engineers and a representative group of the section inspected the site yesterday in an attempt to arrive at some conclusion and give relief immediately.

Valley and Furnace Street residents registered a protest with the Mayor and Council Monday and asked that the flood project work be expedited. The broken sewer pipes, residents said, "constitutes a health menace. The stagnation is also intensifying the mosquito menace."

Opened In Three Weeks

Meeting in the office of Mayor Thomas S. Post yesterday were the Mayor, City Attorney W. Earle Cobey, Thomas F. Dickson, engineer in charge, U. S. Corps of Engineers; Albert S. Paye, liaison engineer for the city with the engineers; James A. Wiant, Valley Street, Aaron Ruppert, 312 Furnace Street; and Charles Wolz, 310 Valley Street.

The group was told that any negotiations must be with the contractor, George and Lynch, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

Dickson said that Furnace Street would be opened in about three weeks. This allows two weeks for the completion of a backfill and one week for laying of a temporary pavement.

Dickson also noted a plan is under consideration to open up a sanitary sewer by running pipe under properties between 411-417 Furnace Street. This, he said, would relieve the problem. Meanwhile, he said, excess sewerage which is exposed and has been causing the health menace is being pumped away.

But the resident group said pumping apparently is having little effect and added the situation is as bad as ever.

At the suggestion of Cobey, Dickson said oil could be put on the affected areas.

Scout Membership At All-Time High

There are more Boy Scouts and Cubs in Potomac Council now than at any time in its history, according to a report released by Willis V. Smith, council executive, in the council's monthly news letter.

The total membership of the council, which covered Allegany and Garrett Counties, and Mineral, Hampshire, Grant and Hardy Counties in West Virginia is 1,406.

In the 16 Cub Packs, there are 418 boys, while in the 40 troops there are 614 Boy Scouts. Explorer Scouts number 374.

Area Soldier Has South Korean Buddy

Pfc. Frank H. Densmore of Woodland, near Frostburg, is one of many American soldiers who have found friends among the South Koreans, according to Richard K. Tucker, Baltimore war correspondent.

Pfc. Densmore, a radio operator with a cable company, has a new South Korean buddy he calls Jim instead of his more difficult given name. These South Koreans, once police carrying carbines, are now scattered thinly through platoons of Pfc. Densmore's battalion.

Next Door Neighbors Fighting In Korea

Next door neighbors on Crawford Street are taking part in the fighting in Korea.

They are Cpl. John Edward Roby, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Roby, 306 Crawford Street, and Glen Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nixon, 304 Crawford Street.

City Still Considered As Quartermaster Site

Cumberland is still in the running as a possible site for the Quartermaster research laboratory to be built by the government, according to David Kauffman, chairman of the Steering Committee for Economic Development in Allegany County.

Kauffman said he was advised of the situation Tuesday by Senator Millard E. Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Tdyings said he was told by William Webster, chairman of the Research and Development Board of the Department of Defense, that material submitted by the Cumberland area is being studied along with a large number of other proposals. Data on all sites is being gathered for consideration September 15, Webster added.

It erroneously reported, Kauffman said, that the proposed laboratory site would be near Charleston, S. C.

Postal Clerks Plan Meeting In Frederick

One hundred and thirty delegates are expected to register for the 13th biennial convention of the Maryland State Branch, United National Association of Post Office Clerks, Saturday and Sunday in the Francis Scott Key Hotel, Frederick.

Rep. J. Glenn Beall has been invited to speak at a dinner Saturday in the hotel ballroom.

How much energy a ship expends on a given trip can be measured by an electrical instrument. The device will keep a continuous check on the performance of ships' power plants, enabling operators to select the most economical speeds for the plants, and indicating when the ships could be drydocked because of drag caused by fouled hulls.

State Coal Mine Output Down 55 Per Cent In 1949

Coal production in Allegany and Garrett Counties, only coal mining counties in Maryland, was 55 per cent less in 1949 than in 1948 according to the annual report of the Maryland Bureau of Mines.

Net tonnage last year was 713,879.-18 as compared with 1,648,487.06 for 1948.

In Allegany County, tonnage dropped from 752,188.08 to 245,512.05, a 66 per cent decrease. The drop from 896,298.18 in 1948 to 467,357.-13 last year in Garrett County represented only a 50 per cent decrease.

Simultaneously, the number of miners employed decreased 25 per cent from 2,049 in 1948 to 1,628 in 1949.

The Big Vein seam was the top producer in Allegany County with 70,139 tons, followed by the Tyson seam with 61,266 tons.

The most productive seam in Garrett County was the Lower Kittaning seam which had a 1949 total output of 156,399 tons. In second place was Upper Freeport with 139,677 tons. Both of these seams accounted for only several hundred tons in Allegany County.

The Upper Potomac Basin had a top tonnage in Maryland with a production of 355,206 tons. Next came the George's Creek Basin with 326,711 tons; Cassleman Basin, 25,-440 tons; Upper Youghigheny, 3,696ft and Lower Youghigheny Basin, 2,834 tons.

In analyzing the drop in production, the report points out that there was a suspension of work starting in July and ending in September and a complete stoppage from September to December. Some mines did not reopen due to a loss of market for their coal.

The report also stated that the output of fire clay dropped from 131,679 tons in 1948 to 121,530 tons in 1949.

Man Given 5 Days To Dig Ditch

Jacob R. Sutherland, Barton, was given a ten day sentence in the Allegany County Jail yesterday for failing to comply with a Circuit Court order to open a ditch on his property.

Judge George Henderson suspended the sentence on the condition that Sutherland open the drain through his property as specified by an order handed down by the judge several months ago.

The defendant yesterday was given five days to complete the project. If this provision is not met, Judge Henderson said, the county commissioners will have the ditch opened at Sutherland's expense and he will still have to serve the sentence.

The county commissioners asked for the order last spring, claiming Sutherland had blocked water coming down a roadside ditch from going across his property. As a result the water overflowed on the road below his property causing a traffic hazard in freezing weather.

Fossil fish found in rocks resemble sharks more than do the varieties of fish still living.

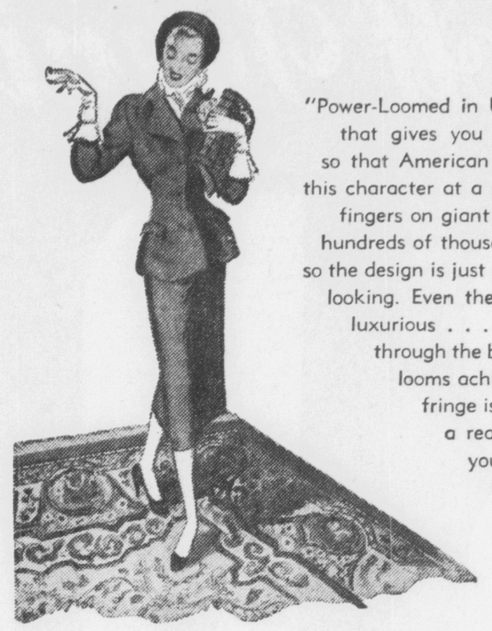
your taste in furniture may change but your KARASTAN is always right . . .



"Power-Loomed in U. S. A." . . . the secret that gives you this beauty, this luxury, so that American homes can have rugs of this character at a modest price. Mechanical fingers on giant looms precisely place the hundreds of thousands of tufts in place . . . so the design is just as intricate and expensive looking. Even the worsted yarns are extra luxurious . . . and each tuft is woven through the back. So skillfully do these looms achieve artistry that even the fringe is part of the rug itself like a real Oriental. See how little you pay for this beauty . . . and ask any Karastan owner if they've ever heard of a Karastan wearing out!

State Coal Mine Output Down 55 Per Cent In 1949

Coal production in Allegany and Garrett Counties, only coal mining counties in Maryland, was 55 per cent less in 1949 than in 1948 according to the annual report of the Maryland Bureau of Mines.

Net tonnage last year was 713,879,-18 as compared with 1,648,487.06 for 1948.

In Allegany County, tonnage dropped from 752,188.08 to 245,512.05, a 66 per cent decrease. The drop from 896,298.18 in 1948 to 467,357.-13 last year in Garrett County represented only a 50 per cent decrease.

Simultaneously, the number of miners employed decreased 25 per cent from 2,049 in 1948 to 1,628 in 1949.

The Big Vein seam was the top producer in Allegany County with 70,139 tons, followed by the Tyson seam with 61,266 tons.

The most productive seam in Garrett County was the Lower Kittaning seam which had a 1949 total output of 156,399 tons. In second place was Upper Freeport with 139,677 tons. Both of these seams accounted for only several hundred tons in Allegany County.

The Upper Potomac Basin had a top tonnage in Maryland with a production of 355,206 tons. Next came the George's Creek Basin with 326,711 tons; Cassleman Basin, 25,-440 tons; Upper Youghigheny, 3,696fi and Lower Youghigheny Basin, 2,834 tons.

In analyzing the drop in production, the report points out that there was a suspension of work starting in July and ending in September and a complete stoppage from September to December. Some mines did not reopen due to a loss of market for their coal.

The report also stated that the output of fire clay dropped from 131,679 tons in 1948 to 121,530 tons in 1949.

Man Given 5 Days To Dig Ditch

Jacob R. Sutherland, Barton, was given a ten day sentence in the Allegany County Jail yesterday for failing to comply with a Circuit Court order to open a ditch on his property.

Judge George Henderson suspended the sentence on the condition that Sutherland open the drain through his property as specified by an order handed down by the judge several months ago.

The defendant yesterday was given five days to complete the project. If this provision is not met, Judge Henderson said, the county commissioners will have the ditch opened at Sutherland's expense and he will still have to serve the sentence.

The county commissioners asked for the order last spring, claiming Sutherland had blocked water coming down a roadside ditch from going across his property. As a result the water overflowed on the road below his property causing a traffic hazard in freezing weather.

Yankees Take Lead In Torrid A. L. Race

Detroit Splits Doubleheader In Nation's Capital

Tigers Win Second 10-8, Lose By 3-2

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Detroit rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to snare the second game of a twilight-night doubleheader from Washington tonight, 10-8. The Senators won the first game, 3-2, in 11 innings. By splitting the twin bill the Tigers dropped one game back of New York in the American League pennant scramble.

The Senators pushed across their winning run off loser Freddie Hutchinson in the first tilt when Sam Dente singled home Sam Mele with one out.

The Nats picked up their other two runs on a homer by Micky Vernon in the second inning and a double by Irv Noren and a long fly by Sam Mele in the fourth.

The Bengals bunched three singles and a double in the fourth inning for their only tallies. Box:

Colts Lose To 49ers, 27-14

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (INS—The San Francisco 49ers rallied twice in the second half tonight to defeat the Baltimore Colts 27-14 before a rain-pelted crowd of 6,000 at Baltimore Memorial Stadium.

The Colts held a 14-13 halftime lead but the 49ers roared back in the next two quarters when Ray Evans recovered Rip Collins' attempted punt in the end zone and Eddie Carr sprinted 45 yards on a pass interception.

Emil Sitko, 49ers halfback, put San Francisco ahead in the first few minutes on a five-yard plunge. The Colts countered for their only scores on an Adrian Burke-to-Jim Owens pass for 11 yards and Y. A. Tittle's toss to Billy Stone for 52 yards.

In the second quarter, Sam Cathcart raced 72 yards on a kickoff for the 49ers' other tally.

Phillies Win Forfeit

The Phillies of the Dapper Division of the Little Baseball League won the continuation of a protested game with the Yankees yesterday at East Side field by forfeit when the Yankees failed to field a team. Umpire-in-chief Bill Nau called the game after Pitcher Art Washington fired the ball over the plate at game time.

Rocking Chair League Playoffs Begin Today With Doubleheader

Elks, ODC, Moose, FOE Play At Penn Ave.

Playoffs to determine the 1950 champion of the Rocking Chair Softball League will get under way today at Penn Avenue Field.

The teams that finished in the four top berths of the league will engage in a doubleheader with the third place B.P.O. Elks battling the first place Cumberland Outdoor Club at 6 o'clock and the Loyal Order of Moose, 4th place club, opposing the runner-up Fraternal Order of Eagles at 7:15 o'clock.

Best-of-three games series will determine the finalists and the championship series will be decided on the same basis.

O D C Swept Series

During the regular campaign, the Outdoor Club swept three straight from the Elks. The fourth game, postponed on account of rain, was never played. Here's how these teams fared in their series:

Teams	Winner	Loser
ODC 5, Elks 4	Morrison	Wilkinson
ODC 8, Elks 3	Morrison	Underdonk
ODC 6, Elks 3	Morrison	Wilkinson

The Eagles hold a 3-1 lead in their series with the Moose. In fact in two of the games the Moose were shut out. Here are the score:

Teams	Winner	Loser
Moose 6, Eagles 3	Frye	Knieriem
Eagles 6, Moose 0	Sheetz	Roberts
Eagles 10, Moose 0	Sheetz	Frye
Eagles 28, Moose 3	Angellatta	Frye

The league's four top pitchers will participate in the playoffs.

Jim Morrison, 17-5, will be on the firing line for the Outdoor Club. He's turned back the GFC, Moose, Amvets, K. of C., and Elks each three times and the Eagles and P. E. once. He's dropped three decisions to the Eagles and one each to the K. of C. and Moose.

Jim Wilkinson is the Elks' ace. He's chalked up 12 wins against six losses.

Scored Seven Shutouts

Allan Sheetz, former City League star, should make the Eagles the favorites to take the title. He's notched 11 wins against two losses and he seems to be a past master at the art of putting the opposition on a goose egg diet as he has seven shutouts to his credit. He's blanked the Moose 10-0, 6-0, Outdoor Club 11-0, 7-0, Amvets 19-0, 3-0 and K. of C. 9-0. His only losses were by the margin of a single run—to the Elks 6-5 and Outdoor Club 10-9.

Ray Frye is the Moose team's best bet. A victory over the Goodfellowship Club on Tuesday gave him an 11-10 record for the season.

Umpires for the series will be "Sooky" Grimes, "Bud" Young and "Buck" Frantz.

Louise Brough Rallies To Top Negro Net Star

Wins Suspended Tilt; Sedgman Advances

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 30 (INS) — Two comparatively unknown 23-year-olds came within a hound's tooth today of perpetrating the biggest upsets seen at the national tennis championships in many a moon.

First, negro sensation Althea Gibson's dramatic bid to make tennis history was thwarted by the comeback of Louise Brough. The veteran Miss Brough eliminated the talented New Yorker, 6-1, 3-6, 9-7.

Sedgman Rallies

Then Straight Clark of Pasadena, Cal., who usually served as a whipping boy for the name players, extended the tournament favorite, Frank Sedgman, to five sets in a second round match.

The Australian Davis Cup Ace, top foreign seeded player in the tournament, finally prevailed 4-6, 6-3, 7-5, 3-6, 7-5.

Miss Gibson went into today's completion of the rain-suspended match leading the Beverly Hills, Cal,. veteran in the final set by seven games to six. Her sensational comeback yesterday had the Wimbledon on the bring of defeat when a thunderstorm struck the West Side Tennis Club and caused the suspension of the match.

Australia's power-packed Davis Cup team had one more near miss to add to the Sedgman squeaker. And the Aussies also were dealt two direct hits.

Only John Bromwich's 6-3, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4 win over Eddie Moylan was clear cut. George Worthington had to come from behind to take France's Henri Rochon, 3-6, 3-6, 6-0, 10-8, 7-5.

Drobny Advances

Second foreign-seeded Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, eliminated Harry Hopman, 9-7, 6-3, 6-1. Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., ousted Mervyn Rose, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

In other matches, Billy Talbert of New York downed Don McNeill, conqueror of Ken McGregor, 6-1, 4-0, 7-5, 6-0. Tom Brown ousted Grant Golden, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

In woman's play, Margaret Osborne du Pont gained the quarter finals with a 6-8, 6-0, 6-1 win over Nancy Morrison. Pat Todd moved to the round of eight by beating Mrs. Richard Buck, 6-1, 6-2. Doris Hart won a 6-2, 7-5 second round match from 15-round-old Maureen Connolly.

Evers Suffers Sprain, To Be Out 10 Days

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Outfielder Hoot Evers of Detroit will be out of action for five to 10 days with a sprained wrist, but the Tigers received some consolation today when x-rays revealed no fracture.

Evers sprained his wrist yesterday when he rammed into Griffith Stadium's wall while chasing a ball in practice.

Take Over Third Place In AL Race

BOSTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox today whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1 to slip ahead of Cleveland into third place in the feverish American League pennant fight.

The home forces scored four unearned runs in the third inning, when the Chicagoans made three errors and continued on to their 15th victory in their 16 games of this current home stand.

The victory, gained before 9,898 paid fans, was the 14th of the campaign for Curly Joe Dobson who lost his shutout in the eighth when Floyd Baker and Eddie Robinson both hit ground doubles. Box:

Star's Pride Tops Hambletonian Winner

DUQUOIN, Ill., Aug. 30 (AP) — Star's Pride won the champion stallion 3-year-old trot in grand circuit racing at the Duquoin state fair today, beating Hambletonian winner Lusty Song.

Star's Pride, second in this year's Hambletonian, took the second and third heats.

Lusty Song, Duquoin-owned star of the Hayes Fair Acres Stable, broke gait and finished seventh in the first heat.

Bob Locke Trails In Lotus Golf

LEEDS, England, Aug. 30 (AP)—Art Lees, British Ryder Cup golfer, and Eric Lester, a comparatively unknown professional led the field at the end of the first round of the lotus $4,200 72-hole stroke tournament.

Lees and Lester toured the 6,515 yards Moortown layout in 67 shots each.

One stroke behind them was Bobby Locke, British open champion, and a shot behind him was Dai Rees.

Mize Is Star As Yanks Take Indians Twice

New Yorkers Win By 4-3, 3-0 Scores

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP) — Powered by the big bat of Johnny Mize, New York's defending champion Yankees soared into first place in the seething American League race today by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians, 4-3 and 3-0.

The Yankees' twin victories forces a complete revision in the first division. New York took the lead from doubleheader on tap in Washington, by one game. The Tigers had been on top for 81 consecutive days, since June 10. Cleveland dropped into fourth place, a game and a half behind the Red Sox, who topped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1, in Boston.

Mize blasted a pair of homeruns, one in each game. His first round-tripper started Bob Feller on the road to his 10th defeat of the season. His second, and 15th of the campaign, came with a man on base and gave Lefty Ed Lopat more than enough runs to register his fifth straight triumph over his Cleveland cousins.

Mize also collected a couple of line singles, missed a third homer by the narrowest of margins, and drew a walk in the eighth inning of the first game that eventually became the winning run. Box:

Five Players Hurt In Yanks-Cleveland Important Series

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP) — The New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians are literally knocking themselves out in their vital series.

Four Indians and two Yankees have been injured so far. Three members of the Indians, infielders Ray Boone, Roberto Avila and outfielder Larry Doby were injured yesterday in the series' opener. Boone suffered a bruised back and Doby and Avila pulled muscles in their right thighs.

Yankee outfielder Gene Woodling was hit on the leg by a thrown ball in fielding practice today and was so severely bruised that he did not play. Yankee starting pitcher Ed Ford bowed out after the seventh inning following a collision with Cleveland's Luke Easter. Ford bruised his hip.

Easter left in the fourth inning of the second game. He pulled up lame after hitting a single.

Dascoli Ejects Five In Two Contests

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30 (AP)— Umpire Frank Dascoli gave the heave-ho to Manager Billy Southworth, third baseman Bob Elliott and infielder Gene Mauch in the fifth inning of today's game between the Boston Braves and the Cincinnati Reds.

Last night he ejected Manager Luke Sewell and Shortstop Virgil Stallcup of the Reds. Stallcup was notified today that he had been fined $50 for his actions in protesting a decision at first by Dascoli.

Elliott started today's rhubarb when he protested a called third strike and kicked dirt over the plate. Southworth took up the argument and was ejected. Then Mauch got his orders for remarks he made from the bench.

Little Leaguers To Have Party At Pittsburgh

It was announced last night that a party has been planned for the group of Little Baseball League players who will be making a trip to Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Pa., to witness a National League baseball game under the sponsorship of the Dapper Dan Club.

The group of little players will leave today at 8 a. m. by chartered bus for the trip to Pittsburgh. The party will be held prior to the game at Forbes Field.

Beagle Club To Meet

The Allegany Beagle Club will hold a regular meeting at its clubhouse on the Barton Dairy farm, McMullen Highway, Friday evening, Sept. 1, beginning at 8 p. m., it was announced by its secretary, Mrs. Stevenson, last night.

Cubs Outlast Brooklyn, 6-5

Dubiel Wins As Rally In 9th Fails Dodgers

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (INS)—The Chicago Cubs bunched four runs in the seventh inning after two were out today to outlast the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6 to 5, before 20,717 fans at Wrigley Field.

The cluster of Cub runs were scored off Erv Palica. But the Dodgers were striving mightily to overcome the 6 to 3 lead going into the ninth. They scored two off Walt Dubiel, the winner and filled the bases off Bob Rush, his succesor, only to see Roy Smalley grab Gil Hodges' low line drive to end the game. Box:

Manager George Wolfe of the Dodgers team of the Dan Division of the Little Baseball League has requested that all his players turn in their uniforms Friday, Sept. 1.

Rain Washes Out County Softball League Contests

Rain washed out the entire schedule of the County Softball League yesterday. The loop is scheduled to end Friday and there is a three-cornered battle for 4th place among Potomac Valley, Hyndman and Narrows Park.

The Park tossers have three more games to play including a playoff of a tie game with Wellersburg while the Cubs and Hyndman each have two more contests pending.

LaVale tops the circuit while Wellersburg is second and Corriganville third. Only two games separate the fourth place clubs from second-place Wellersburg.

Houtteman Called For Service Exam

DETROIT, Aug. 30 (AP)—Art Houtteman, 23-year-old ace righthander of the Detroit Tiger pitching staff, has been called by his draft board to report Sept. 16 for a pre-induction examination—but his chances of being classified 1-A apparently are slim.

Houtteman announced May 4—long before the outbreak of war in Korea—that he would be married Nov. 4 to Shelagh Kelly, professional diver. Under Michigan selective service policy those announcing wedding intentions before the Korean war are deferred.

Detroit Splits Doubleheader In Nation's Capital

Tigers Win Second 10-8, Lose By 3-2

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Detroit rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to snare the second game of a twilight-night doubleheader from Washington tonight, 10-8. The Senators won the first game, 3-2, in 11 innings. By splitting the twin bill the Tigers dropped one game back of New York in the American League pennant scramble.

The Senators pushed across their winning run off loser Freddie Hutchinson in the first tilt when Sam Dente singled home Sam Mele with one out.

The Nats picked up their other two runs on a homer by Micky Vernon in the second inning and a double by Irv Noren and a long fly by Sam Mele in the fourth.

The Bengals bunched three singles and a double in the fourth inning for their only tallies. Box:

Colts Lose To 49ers, 27-14

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30 (INS—The San Francisco 49ers rallied twice in the second half tonight to defeat the Baltimore Colts 27-14 before a rain-pelted crowd of 6,000 at Baltimore Memorial Stadium.

The Colts held a 14-13 halftime lead but the 49ers roared back in the next two quarters when Ray Evans recovered Rip Collins' attempted punt in the end zone and Eddie Carr sprinted 45 yards on a pass interception.

Emil Sitko, 49ers halfback, put San Francisco ahead in the first few minutes on a five-yard plunge. The Colts countered for their only scores on an Adrian Burke-to-Jim Owens pass for 11 yards and Y. A. Tittle's toss to Billy Stone for 52 yards.

In the second quarter, Sam Cathcart raced 72 yards on a kickoff for the 49ers' other tally.

Phillies Win Forfeit

The Phillies of the Dapper Division of the Little Baseball League won the continuation of a protested game with the Yankees yesterday at East Side field by forfeit when the Yankees failed to field a team. Umpire-in-chief Bill Nau called the game after Pitcher Art Washington fired the ball over the plate at game time.

Rocking Chair League Playoffs Begin Today With Doubleheader

Elks, ODC, Moose, FOE Play At Penn Ave.

Playoffs to determine the 1950 champion of the Rocking Chair Softball League will get under way today at Penn Avenue Field.

The teams that finished in the four top berths of the league will engage in a doubleheader with the third place B.P.O. Elks battling the first place Cumberland Outdoor Club at 6 o'clock and the Loyal Order of Moose, 4th place club, opposing the runner-up Fraternal Order of Eagles at 7:15 o'clock.

Best-of-three games series will determine the finalists and the championship series will be decided on the same basis.

O D C Swept Series

During the regular campaign, the Outdoor Club swept three straight from the Elks. The fourth game, postponed on account of rain, was never played. Here's how these teams fared in their series:

Teams	Winner	Loser
ODC 5, Elks 4	Morrison	Wilkinson
ODC 8, Elks 3	Morrison	Underdonk
ODC 6, Elks 3	Morrison	Wilkinson

The Eagles hold a 3-1 lead in their series with the Moose. In fact in two of the games the Moose were shut out. Here are the score:

Teams	Winner	Loser
Moose 6, Eagles 3	Frye	Knierim
Eagles 6, Moose 0	Sheetz	Roberts
Eagles 10, Moose 0	Sheetz	Frye
Eagles 28, Moose 3	Angellatta	Frye

The league's four top pitchers will participate in the playoffs.

Jim Morrison, 17-5, will be on the firing line for the Outdoor Club. He's turned back the GFC, Moose, Amvets, K. of C., and Elks each three times and the Eagles and P. E. once. He's dropped three decisions to the Eagles and one each to the K. of C. and Moose.

Jim Wilkinson is the Elks' ace. He's chalked up 12 wins against six losses.

Scored Seven Shutouts

Allan Sheetz, former City League star, should make the Eagles the favorites to take the title. He's notched 11 wins against two losses and he seems to be a past master at the art of putting the opposition on a goose egg diet as he has seven shutouts to his credit. He's blanked the Moose 10-0, 6-0, Outdoor Club 11-0, 7-0, Amvets 19-0, 3-0 and K. of C. 9-0. His only losses were by the margin of a single run—to the Elks 6-5 and Outdoor Club 10-9.

Ray Frye is the Moose team's best bet. A victory over the Goodfellowship Club on Tuesday gave him an 11-10 record for the season.

Umpires for the series will be "Sooky" Grimes, "Bud" Young and "Buck" Frantz.

Louise Brough Rallies To Top Negro Net Star

Wins Suspended Tilt; Sedgman Advances

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 30 (INS) — Two comparatively unknown 23-year-olds came within a hound's tooth today of perpetrating the biggest upsets seen at the national tennis championships in many a moon.

First, negro sensation Althea Gibson's dramatic bid to make tennis history was thwarted by the comeback of Louise Brough. The veteran Miss Brough eliminated the talented New Yorker, 6-1, 3-6, 9-7.

Sedgman Rallies

Then Straight Clark of Pasadena, Cal., who usually served as a whipping boy for the name players, extended the tournament favorite, Frank Sedgman, to five sets in a second round match.

The Australian Davis Cup Ace, top foreign seeded player in the tournament, finally prevailed 4-6, 6-3, 7-5, 3-6, 7-5.

Miss Gibson went into today's completion of the rain-suspended match leading the Beverly Hills, Cal,. veteran in the final set by seven games to six. Her sensational comeback yesterday had the Wimbledon on the bring of defeat when a thunderstorm struck the West Side Tennis Club and caused the suspension of the match.

Australia's power-packed Davis Cup team had one more near miss to add to the Sedgman squeaker. And the Aussies also were dealt two direct hits.

Only John Bromwich's 6-3, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4 win over Eddie Moylan was clear cut. George Worthington had to come from behind to take France's Henri Rochon, 3-6, 3-6, 6-0, 10-8, 7-5.

Drobny Advances

Second foreign-seeded Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, eliminated Harry Hopman, 9-7, 6-3, 6-1. Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., ousted Mervyn Rose, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

In other matches, Billy Talbert of New York downed Don McNeill, conqueror of Ken McGregor, 6-1, 4-0, 7-5, 6-0. Tom Brown ousted Grant Golden, 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

In woman's play, Margaret Osborne du Pont gained the quarter finals with a 6-8, 6-0, 6-1 win over Nancy Morrison. Pat Todd moved to the round of eight by beating Mrs. Richard Buck, 6-1, 6-2. Doris Hart won a 6-2, 7-5 second round match from 15-round-old Maureen Connolly.

Evers Suffers Sprain, To Be Out 10 Days

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 (AP) — Outfielder Hoot Evers of Detroit will be out of action for five to 10 days with a sprained wrist, but the Tigers received some consolation today when x-rays revealed no fracture.

Evers sprained his wrist yesterday when he rammed into Griffith Stadium's wall while chasing a ball in practice.

Take Over Third Place In AL Race

BOSTON, Aug. 30 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox today whipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1 to slip ahead of Cleveland into third place in the feverish American League pennant fight.

The home forces scored four unearned runs in the third inning, when the Chicagoans made three errors and continued on to their 15th victory in their 16 games of this current home stand.

The victory, gained before 9,898 paid fans, was the 14th of the campaign for Curly Joe Dobson who lost his shutout in the eighth when Floyd Baker and Eddie Robinson both hit ground doubles. Box:

Mize Is Star As Yanks Take Indians Twice

New Yorkers Win By 4-3, 3-0 Scores

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP) — Powered by the big bat of Johnny Mize, New York's defending champion Yankees soared into first place in the seething American League race today by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians, 4-3 and 3-0.

The Yankees' twin victories forces a complete revision in the first division. New York took the lead from doubleheader on tap in Washington, by one game. The Tigers had been on top for 81 consecutive days, since June 10. Cleveland dropped into fourth place, a game and a half behind the Red Sox, who topped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1, in Boston.

Mize blasted a pair of homeruns, one in each game. His first roundtripper started Bob Feller on the road to his 10th defeat of the season. His second, and 15th of the campaign, came with a man on base and gave Lefty Ed Lopat more than enough runs to register his fifth straight triumph over his Cleveland cousins.

Mize also collected a couple of line singles, missed a third homer by the narrowest of margins, and drew a walk in the eighth inning of the first game that eventually became the winning run. Box:

Five Players Hurt In Yanks-Cleveland Important Series

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP) — The New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians are literally knocking themselves out in their vital series.

Four Indians and two Yankees have been injured so far. Three members of the Indians, infielders Ray Boone, Roberto Avila and outfielder Larry Doby were injured yesterday in the series' opener. Boone suffered a bruised back and Doby and Avila pulled muscles in their right thighs.

Yankee outfielder Gene Woodling was hit on the leg by a thrown ball in fielding practice today and was so severely bruised that he did not play. Yankee starting pitcher Ed Ford bowed out after the seventh inning following a collision with Cleveland's Luke Easter. Ford bruised his hip.

Easter left in the fourth inning of the second game. He pulled up lame after hitting a single.

Dascoli Ejects Five In Two Contests

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30 (AP)— Umpire Frank Dascoli gave the heave-ho to Manager Billy Southworth, third baseman Bob Elliott and infielder Gene Mauch in the fifth inning of today's game between the Boston Braves and the Cincinnati Reds.

Last night he ejected Manager Luke Sewell and Shortstop Virgil Stallcup of the Reds. Stallcup was notified today that he had been fined $50 for his actions in protesting a decision at first by Dascoli.

Elliott started today's rhubarb when he protested a called third strike and kicked dirt over the plate. Southworth took up the argument and was ejected. Then Mauch got his orders for remarks he made from the bench.

Little Leaguers To Have Party At Pittsburgh

It was announced last night that a party has been planned for the group of Little Baseball League players who will be making a trip to Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Pa., to witness a National League baseball game under the sponsorship of the Dapper Dan Club.

The group of little players will leave today at 8 a. m. by chartered bus for the trip to Pittsburgh. The party will be held prior to the game at Forbes Field.

Beagle Club To Meet

The Allegany Beagle Club will hold a regular meeting at its clubhouse on the Barton Dairy farm, McMullen Highway, Friday evening, Sept. 1, beginning at 8 p. m., it was announced by its secretary, Mrs. Stevenson, last night.

Cubs Outlast Brooklyn, 6-5

Dubiel Wins As Rally In 9th Fails Dodgers

CHICAGO, Aug. 30 (INS)—The Chicago Cubs bunched four runs in the seventh inning after two were out today to outlast the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6 to 5, before 20,717 fans at Wrigley Field.

The cluster of Cub runs were scored off Erv Palica. But the Dodgers were striving mightily to overcome the 6 to 3 lead going into the ninth. They scored two off Walt Dubiel, the winner and filled the bases off Bob Rush, his successor, only to see Roy Smalley grab Gil Hodges' low line drive to end the game. Box:

Bi-State Umpires Get Assignments For Holiday Games

Cecil Warnick, umpire-in-chief of the Bi-State Baseball League announced assignments for the arbiters of the Labor Day holiday contests next week. Games scheduled and the umprise follow:

SUNDAY— Hyndman at Midland — Laughlin and Johnson; Keyser at Frostburg—Diaz and DiUbaldo; Lonaconing at Mt. Savage — Thompson and Broadwater; Westvaco at Old Germans — Chappell and Gardner.

MONDAY (LABOR DAY) —Old Germans at Hyndman—Broadwater and C. Warnick; Midland at Keyser—Laughlin and Harvey; Frostburg at Lonaconing — Diaz and Ubaldo; Mt. Savage at Westvaco—Johnson and Chappell.

Midland, Hyndman, Westvaco and Keyser are the top four clubs in the circuit and the Labor Day contests will bring the 1950 campaign to a close except for the Shaughnessy playoffs.

Tenpin Loop Meets

The final meeting of the County Tenpin League before the winter season starts Sept. 8 will be held at Workman's Restaurant in Frostburg, Friday. 1, at 8 p. m.

Turn In Uniforms

Manager George Wolfe of the Dodgers team of the Dan Division of the Little Baseball League has requested that all his players turn in their uniforms Friday, Sept. 1.

Rain Washes Out County Softball League Contests

Rain washed out the entire schedule of the County Softball League yesterday. The loop is scheduled to end Friday and there is a three-cornered battle for 4th place among Potomac Valley, Hyndman and Narrows Park.

The Park tossers have three more games to play including a playoff of a tie game with Wellersburg while the Cubs and Hyndman each have two more contests pending.

LaVale tops the circuit while Wellersburg is second and Corriganville third. Only two games separate the fourth place clubs from second-place Wellersburg.

Houtteman Called For Service Exam

DETROIT, Aug. 30 (AP)—Art Houtteman, 23-year-old ace righthander of the Detroit Tiger pitching staff, has been called by his draft board to report Sept. 16 for a pre-induction examination—but his chances of being classified 1-A apparently are slim.

Houtteman announced May 4—long before the outbreak of war in Korea—that he would be married Nov. 4 to Shelagh Kelly, professional diver. Under Michigan selective service policy those announcing wedding intentions before the Korean war are deferred.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY THE BEST!
GOODYEAR TIRES are the best!
In times like these, far-sighted people naturally buy the best. And when it comes to tires, they buy the best tires. That's why more car owners today are turning to Goodyear tires. That's why we're having a hard time keeping Goodyear tires in stock — despite the fact that Goodyear makes more tires than any other manufacturer in the world. Even if we are temporarily out of your tire size, it will pay you to place your order now for earliest possible delivery.
Remember, if we don't have your tire size today, it will pay you to wait for new Goodyears — the best!
It's Value that counts
The final answer to tire value is how many trouble-free miles a tire delivers compared to its cost. Get Goodyear quality and find out for yourself why Goodyears are best.
Terms to suit you....
You can still get longer-wearing Goodyear tires at prices you like to pay on terms that suit you. We'll give you a generous allowance for your old tires, too.
Trade new miles for old
90% of all tire trouble occurs in the last 10% of tire life. Why take chances with worn, smooth tires? We'll trade you new Goodyear miles for the remaining unsafe mileage in your present tires. Get out of the "danger zone" — go Goodyear for safety.
And for safer driving, get LifeGuard Safety Tubes.
Come in . . . let's talk tires, tubes, terms

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY THE BEST!
GOODYEAR TIRES are the best!
In times like these, far-sighted people naturally buy the best. And when it comes to tires, they buy the best tires. That's why more car owners today are turning to Goodyear tires. That's why we're having a hard time keeping Goodyear tires in stock — despite the fact that Goodyear makes more tires than any other manufacturer in the world. Even if we are temporarily out of your tire size, it will pay you to place your order now for earliest possible delivery.
Remember, if we don't have your tire size today, it will pay you to wait for new Goodyears — the best!
It's Value that counts
The final answer to tire value is how many trouble-free miles a tire delivers compared to its cost. Get Goodyear quality and find out for yourself why Goodyears are best.
Terms to suit you....
You can still get longer-wearing Goodyear tires at prices you like to pay on terms that suit you. We'll give you a generous allowance for your old tires, too.
Trade new miles for old
90% of all tire trouble occurs in the last 10% of tire life. Why take chances with worn, smooth tires? We'll trade you new Goodyear miles for the remaining unsafe mileage in your present tires. Get out of the "danger zone" — go Goodyear for safety.
And for safer driving, get LifeGuard Safety Tubes.

Frostburg Air Observers To Get Training

Communications Will Be Studied

FROSTBURG — Outpost 24-B, Airplane Observers will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the business office of the Potomac Edison Company to receive telephone communication training.

Using the inter-office telephone system, observers will report the flights observed at the last meeting when planes were flown over the Frostburg area by Dr. W. Royce Hodges, of Cumberland and William Keiling, Wright's Crossing.

A former aircraft filter center volunteer, will describe the functions of that Center.

New members enrolled during the past week include Charles Rafferty, Robert V. Pascoe and J. E. Watkins.

Membership and identification cards for all persons affiliated with the outpost have been issued by the U. S. Airforce, and will be distributed to qualified members attending the meeting.

Post, Auxiliary Plans Celebration

MT. SAVAGE — Memorial Post 159 and Auxiliary will hold a joint anniversary celebration in the Legion Home today at 8 p. m.

This celebration will mark the seventh year for Memorial Post 159, and the sixth year for the unit.

During the past few years, both the post and unit contributed their efforts to the Rehabilitation and Child Welfare Projects in the community.

MRS. SHEETZ BURIAL

WESTERNPORT—A funeral service for Miss Mary "Mollie" Sheetz, 88, formerly of here, a daughter of the late George W. and Matilda Sheetz, who died Tuesday afternoon at the Allegany County Infirmary, Cumberland, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the Boal Funeral Home here. Rev. O. Clarence Mitchell, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church Piedmont, W. Va., will officiate and burial will be in Philos Cemetery.

CARL O. SMITH

KEYSER, W. Va.—Carl O. "Buck" Smith, owner of the South End Garage, died Tuesday afternoon in Newton D. Baker Veterans Hospital, where he had been a patient for six weeks.

He lived just off Route 46 and was a major in World War 11.

Pastor From India To Be Main Speaker At Meeting

KEYSER, W. Va.—The Moorefield District Missionary Institute of the Methodist Church will be held at Grace Methodist Church, Mineral Street, Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. H. S. Gladstone, of Vikarabad, the Deccan, India, will be the main speaker. He is superintendent of the English-Hindustani district of the Hyderabad Annual Conference, supervising the work of pastors using both languages in their services.

Rev. Gladstone is a native of Vikarabad and was educated at Leonard Theological College, Jubbulpore, Serampore University and Calcutta University. He was ordained a minister of the Methodist Church in 1939.

His first preaching appointment was as pastor of rural churches in the Vikarabad district. His later appointments included pastorates at Central Church there, Central Church in Hyderabad, the largest church in the conference, and the English service in Secuderabad.

For the past two years, Rev. Gladstone has been superintendent of the district and also headmaster and director of religious education at the Methodist Boys High School, Hyderabad. He has been called upon by the Church for service as a youth leader of the new India.

Former Missionary To Speak In Keyser

KEYSER, W. Va.—Dr. Edwin E. Calverley, missionary in Kuwait, Arabia, for 20 years, will speak at First Methodist Church, Davis Street, Sunday, at 11 a. m.

Dr. Calverley is a trustee of the American University of Cairo, Egypt, author, editor and at the present time a teacher at the Kennedy School of Missions at Harford, Conn. He will make contributions in the new edition of one of the prominent encyclopedias for college use.

KEEPING UP WITH HOLLYWOOD

By DOROTHY MANNERS

(Substituting for vacationing Louella Parsons)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 30—(INS)—September 13 is the deadline set by MGM for Elizabeth Taylor to be here for "Father's Little Dividend."

Before this, an explosion of rumors had been set off when Elizabet caught a plane out of New York alone.

She checked into the Stevens Hotel in Chicago with Bridegroom Nicky Hilton missing. But several hours after Elizabeth's arrival, young Hilton checked in and joined his bride in the honeymoon suite.

From Chicago they fly to El Paso, Texas, to see Nicky's mother, Mrs. Mary Saxen.

Never an edition goes by that something doesn't pop from Jerry Wald and Norman Krasma at RKO—the latest being a contract with the Great Arturo Toscanini to make his Hollywood screen appearance in "Stars and Stripes Forever"—the Al Jolson (they hope) picture.

The maestro conducts two numbers—Sousa's stirring "Stars and Stripes Forever" and a symphonic arrangement of "Dixie." It does not mean, however, that he would have to hurry here from Europe. The orchestrations could be made at the end of the picture or any time practically at Toscanini's convenience.

Rhonda Fleming, luscious redhead, and a dreamboat in technicolor, gets the co-star call opposite Ronald Reagan in "The Last Outpost" for Bill Pine and Bill Thomas.

Rhonda Fleming

She should feel real pleased over the way her selection came about. Pine and Thomas submitted a list of available actresses to the theater men who release their pictures asking "which one?" They voted big for Rhonda. Considering that the list went to exhibitors in 46 towns—that's quite a compliment.

It's her second for the two Bills. She also did "Eagle And The Hawk" for them.

• — • — •

Several years ago J. Arthur Rank had his eye on making "Lochinvar." Well, he isn't going to, but his son-in-law, Fred Packard, is.

Packard will produce the classic about the rider who came out of the west, "through all the wide border his steed was the best," for Columbia release in the best swashbuckling traditions—and in technicolor.

The tall adventure script by Jimmy Baker and Wolfe Reade is said to be a honey. Rease is the brother of Eddie Read who has done such a good job publicizing the Del Mar season.

Snapshots of Hollywood taken at random:

On the sentimental side was the farewell dinner for Andre Previn and Phyllis Kirk gave themselves at the Tallyho two nights before Andre's departure for Camp Cook. Uncle Sam's cancelled their wedding plans.

Margaret Whiting and Lou Busch made their first cafe appearance since their Mexico elopement, at the Bar of Music's tenth anniversary party. It was also the first appearance of the Rudy Vallees since the stork cancelled his visit.

Mercedes McCambridge is helping her maid recover several thousand dollars swindled from the girl in a property deal.

Nora (Mrs. Dick) Haymes makes her first test flight for a pilot's license when she flies Dick to Sacramento for his appearance at the fair.

After eight weeks on the road with "Our Very Own," Joan Evans gets home tomorrow, pretty beat. But she did a whale of a job.

Tony Martin and Cyd Charisse wanted a boy all along—so they are extra delighted about eight-pound Tony Jr., parked in the nursery at St. John's Hospital.

Jack Dempsey gave a birthday party for his 15-year-old Barbara at the Seacombers—and Sharon Lynn came along with Jack to help the youngster cut the cake.

Robert Cummings traveled 1,000 miles from his Rogue River vacation to record one extra line of dialogue for "For Heaven's Sake"—For Heaven's sake.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Giant guinea pigs, or capybaras, which weigh as much as 100 pounds, are said to be the largest rodents in existence.

ON THE LINE

By BOB CONSIDINE

MADISON, Wis. (INS)—HARDLY TWO weeks ago this country was in danger of losing one of the most critical wars in its history. We had committed a considerable (but still secret) percentage of our entire available might against an enemy which we were at first prone to laugh at, and he had rolled us back to a distressed beachhead.

We had, in remote battles in remoter Korean towns, lost as much or more material as the invasion of Normandy cost us in a war which involved countless more men. Our tanks no longer could hope to compete with the Russian tanks; our mortar and Howitzer fire took second place to that of the enemy and his infiltrations and encirclements were cleanly superior. We had had the hell kicked out of us and, worse, we knew it.

The dirty, discouraged Americans and the South Koreans who made their final stand along the Naktong and made it stick in the face of both torrential and subtle enemy attack, felt that they could no longer hold the leaky perimeter if either of these two events occured:

1. The entrance of Chinese Red armies into the field;

2. A massive enemy bombing of Pusan, the port through which the entire defense fed.

To these great fears—which still have not completely disappeared—were added gnawing doubts. It was felt that Russia, cozily in the position of being able to start similar incidents in perhaps half a dozen sectors of the world, might do so and destroy all our hopes of strengthening the Korean beachhead.

• — • — •

It was feared by the front line soldier, too, that too many politicos too far from the reality of the war, were popping off alarmingly. For perhaps the first time in our history none of our fighting men wanted to hear any loud boasts of what they, as representatives of the biggest and richest nation, could do to any opponent on earth.

"Here's a bum wants us to fight Russia right now," I heard a fellow say in Taegu, while he read his Stars and Stripes "and we can't even beat these gooks."

The whole mood of the Korean war has changed in the past two weeks. Our muscles are beginning to bulge within the confines of the tight perimeter. We have a solid line, at last, where two weeks ago it was solid only on the war maps in the newspapers—which failed to show gaps as wide as a mile between units. The "merchandise" is arriving and being stacked against the day we begin to move. And, best of all, there are for the first time in the two months of the war sufficient reserves and the men who have lived through the fighting to date have become past masters of a kind of warfare unlike any this country has ever been called upon to fight.

Our planes, superior from the start, have broken the enemy's bridges, chewed up his transport and made it necessary for him to live on parched land. His ribs are beginning to show and more and more he must be driven into battle—or suffer the brutal consequences.

He'll attack again and again, but the feeling rises in Korea that by this he will create only higher mounds of his dead—now rotting along the Naktong and filling the air of the dismal land with its most suffocating of smells. He'll attack because to refuse means death and, if he lives through the attack, it means he will eat what we drop.

• — • — •

In time we'll move. Unless he gets help in a vivid way, such as from Red China or redder Russia, he'll have to begin the torturous and treacherous withdrawal which—in all probability—will continue into the bitter North Korean winter.

By Christmas he should be able to believe the leaflets which we have been dropping on him by the millions: That he, a pitable puppet, is now confronted by hosts from perhaps two dozen United Nations. By that time he will have heard new and angry tones in the guns arrayed against him—tones made by British, Australian, French, New Zealand, Siamese Pakistan, Brazilian, South African and other guns.

For all he knows, by Christmas he might be opposed in the north by Russian guns—for there is no limit to Soviet treachery or to the Soviet's ability to confuse and bewilder the world. It would let an unsuccessful puppet go down the drain without a qualm and barefacedly claim the gratitude of the free world for having pulled the stopper.

By BOB CONSIDINE

MADISON, Wis. (INS)—HARDLY TWO weeks ago this country was in danger of losing one of the most critical wars in its history. We had committed a considerable (but still secret) percentage of our entire available might against an enemy which we were at first prone to laugh at, and he had rolled us back to a distressed beachhead.

We had, in remote battles in remoter Korean towns, lost as much or more material as the invasion of Normandy cost us in a war which involved countless more men. Our tanks no longer could hope to compete with the Russian tanks; our mortar and Howitzer fire took second place to that of the enemy and his infiltrations and encirclements were cleanly superior. We had had the hell kicked out of us and, worse, we knew it.

The dirty, discouraged Americans and the South Koreans who made their final stand along the Naktong and made it stick in the face of both torrential and subtle enemy attack, felt that they could no longer hold the leaky perimeter if either of these two events occured:

1. The entrance of Chinese Red armies into the field;

2. A massive enemy bombing of Pusan, the port through which the entire defense fed.

To these great fears—which still have not completely disappeared—were added gnawing doubts. It was felt that Russia, coolly in the position of being able to start similar incidents in perhaps half a dozen sectors of the world, might do so and destroy all our hopes of strengthening the Korean beachhead.

• — • — •

It was feared by the front line soldier, too, that too many politicos too far from the reality of the war, were popping off alarmingly. For perhaps the first time in our history none of our fighting men wanted to hear any loud boasts of what they, as representatives of the biggest and richest nation, could do to any opponent on earth.

"Here's a bum wants us to fight Russia right now," I heard a fellow say in Taegu, while he read his Stars and Stripes "and we can't even beat these gooks."

The whole mood of the Korean war has changed in the past two weeks. Our muscles are beginning to bulge within the confines of the tight perimeter. We have a solid line, at last, where two weeks ago it was solid only on the war maps in the newspapers—which failed to show gaps as wide as a mile between units. The "merchandise" is arriving and being stacked against the day we begin to move. And, best of all, there are for the first time in the two months of the war sufficient reserves and the men who have lived through the fighting to date have become past masters of a kind of warfare unlike any this country has ever been called upon to fight.

Our planes, superior from the start, have broken the enemy's bridges, chewed up his transport and made it necessary for him to live on parched land. His ribs are beginning to show and more and more he must be driven into battle—or suffer the brutal consequences.

He'll attack again and again, but the feeling rises in Korea that by this he will create only higher mounds of his dead—now rotting along the Naktong and filling the air of the dismal land with its most suffocating of smells. He'll attack because to refuse means death and, if he lives through the attack, it means he will eat what we drop.

• — • — •

In time we'll move. Unless he gets help in a vivid way, such as from Red China or redder Russia, he'll have to begin the torturous and treacherous withdrawal which—in all probability—will continue into the bitter North Korean winter.

By Christmas he should be able to believe the leaflets which we have been dropping on him by the millions: That he, a pitable puppet, is now confronted by hosts from perhaps two dozen United Nations. By that time he will have heard new and angry tones in the guns arrayed against him—tones made by British, Australian, French, New Zealand, Siamese Pakistan, Brazilian, South African and other guns.

For all he knows, by Christmas he might be opposed in the north by Russian guns—for there is no limit to Soviet treachery or to the Soviet's ability to confuse and bewilder the world. It would let an unsuccessful puppet go down the drain without a qualm and barefacedly claim the gratitude of the free world for having pulled the stopper.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father, grandfather and husband, James Everly, who died 3 years ago, August 31, 1947.
The golden sun is shining
Upon our dear father's grave,
One we loved so dearly,
And tried so hard to save.
When we lost you, dearest father,
We lost a wonderful pal.
We love you now and miss you
More and more and ever shall.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father, grandfather and husband, James Everly, who died 3 years ago, August 31, 1947.
The golden sun is shining
Upon our dear father's grave,
One we loved so dearly,
And tried so hard to save.
When we lost you, dearest father,
We lost a wonderful pal.
We love you now and miss you
More and more and ever shall.
Mrs. Lottie Everly,
Children & grandchildren

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain real estate on Main Street, in the Town of Westernport, in Allegany County, Maryland.

The Bill states that George E. Klencke, late of Mineral County, West Virginia, died seized and possessed at the time of his death of a certain lot of ground, improved by a double frame dwelling, located on the East Side of Main Street, in the Town of Westernport, Allegany County, Maryland, as conveyed unto him by O. Tibbets et ux.; by deed dated May 16, 1913, and recorded among the Land Records of Allegany County, Maryland, in Liber No. 112, Folio 711, all of which lot is more particularly described in said Bill.

That by the Last Will and Testament of the said George E. Klencke, the aforesaid property was devised unto Carrie Keller and Vesta Harmon, equally, for their natural lives, and upon the death of Carrie Keller unto her children, Robert Keller, George Keller and Evelyn Price, equally, and upon the death of Vesta Harmon, her share unto her children, Reginald Harmon and William Harmon, equally. That the said Carrie Keller died on the fourteenth day of August, 1950, and the Plaintiffs are vested with the undivided one-half interest in said property, and that the real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as stated in said Bill and that in order to make division of said Interests, it will be necessary that the said real estate be sold, and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests.

That the said Vesta Harmon, Reginald Harmon and William Harmon, are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon this 29th day of August, 1950, ordered by the Circuit Court of Allegany County, Maryland, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Allegany County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of September, 1950, give notice to the said absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 17th day of October, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Clerk

Attack Of Nervous Selling Sets Stock Market Back

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—A sharp attack of nervous selling today set the stock market back by a few cents to more than two dollars a share.

The outstanding example was Wheeling Steel which was doing all right until directors declared the usual 50 cent quarterly dividend on common.

Traders had expected much more than that and started selling. In the ensuing jam, trading was suspended until the selling was straightened out. It reopened on a block of 5,000 shares, off 1⅞. At the close, Wheeling was off 2¾ at 32⅝.

Nickel Plate lighted up the scene with some more fireworks and zoomed 6½ points to 142½ before it fell off and closed with a net gain of one point.

Rails as a whole were down, but not so far as the rest of the market.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell .5 of a point to 78.3 with industrials off .8 of a point, rails off .2 and utilities down .4 of a point.

The volume of trading amounted to 1,490,000 shares, the same as Tuesday.

The market was a little less broad than Tuesday with 1,099 individual issues traded as against 1,123 issues Tuesday. Today were 338 individual issues advancing and 533 declining. With the market bumping around the year's high point in so many sections, there were 51 new highs made for the year and only three new lows.

Law Offices of Horace P. Whitworth, Jr., Attorney at Law, Westernport, Maryland. Robert Keller, George Keller, Evelyn Price, PLAINTIFFS vs. Vesta Harmon, Reginald Harmon, William Harmon, DEFENDANTS. No. 21890 Equity in the Circuit Court of Allegany County, State of Maryland.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain real estate on Main Street, in the Town of Westernport, in Allegany County, Maryland.

The Bill states that George E. Klencke, late of Mineral County, West Virginia, died seized and possessed at the time of his death of a certain lot of ground, improved by a double frame dwelling, located on the East Side of Main Street, in the Town of Westernport, Allegany County, Maryland, as conveyed unto him by O. Tibbets et ux., by deed dated May 16, 1913, and recorded among the Land Records of Allegany County, Maryland, in Liber No. 112, Folio 711, all of which lot is more particularly described in said Bill.

That by the Last Will and Testament of the said George E. Klencke, the aforesaid property was devised unto Carrie Keller and Vesta Harmon, equally, for their natural lives, and upon the death of Carrie Keller unto her children, Robert Keller, George Keller and Evelyn Price, equally, and upon the death of Vesta Harmon, her share unto her children, Reginald Harmon and William Harmon, equally. That the said Carrie Keller died on the fourteenth day of August, 1950, and the Plaintiffs are vested with the undivided one-half interest in said property, and that the real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as stated in said Bill and that in order to make division of said Interests, it will be necessary that the said real estate be sold, and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their several interests.

That the said Vesta Harmon, Reginald Harmon and William Harmon, are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon this 29th day of August, 1950, ordered by the Circuit Court of Allegany County, Maryland, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in said Allegany County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 30th day of September, 1950, give notice to the said absent Defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 17th day of October, next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Attack Of Nervous Selling Sets Stock Market Back

NEW YORK, Aug. 30 (AP)—A sharp attack of nervous selling today set the stock market back by a few cents to more than two dollars a share.

The outstanding example was Wheeling Steel which was doing all right until directors declared the usual 50 cent quarterly dividend on common.

Traders had expected much more than that and started selling. In the ensuing jam, trading was suspended until the selling was straightened out. It reopened on a block of 5,000 shares, off 1⅞. At the close, Wheeling was off 2¾ at 32⅝.

Nickel Plate lighted up the scene with some more fireworks and zoomed 6½ points to 142½ before it fell off and closed with a net gain of one point.

Rails as a whole were down, but not so far as the rest of the market.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell .5 of a point to 78.3 with industrials off .8 of a point, rails off .2 and utilities down .4 of a point.

The volume of trading amounted to 1,490,000 shares, the same as Tuesday.

The market was a little less broad than Tuesday with 1,099 individual issues traded as against 1,123 issues Tuesday. Today were 338 individual issues advancing and 533 declining. With the market bumping around the year's high point in so many sections, there were 51 new highs made for the year and only three new lows.

Communists In State Attack Register Plan

State Party Heads Want To Be Heard

Cumberland's proposed ordinance to register communists here drew fire yesterday from state communist officials in Baltimore.

In a telegram sent to Mayor Thomas S. Post, the officials voiced strong opposition to the "fascist-type" ordinance.

The telegram, signed by Philip Frankfeld, chairman, and George Meyers, labor secretary, stated:

"The communist party of Maryland strongly opposes the fascist-type ordinance being considered by Cumberland city officials which would require registration of our members.

"We demand the right to be heard in opposition before a vote is taken. Request that you notify us as to when hearing will be held."

Mayor Post said the ordinance is being drafted by City Attorney W. Earle Cobey on the basis of information asked from other cities.

It may be ready for presentation at next Tuesday's session of the Mayor and Council, he said.

"There will be no separate hearing held on the ordinance," Mayor Post said.

"When it is prepared and ready for introduction, the communist party officials will be notified at which regular session it will be discussed."

The mayor added:

"Then they will have the right to appear like any other citizen to give their views. This ordinance will be handled like any other."

First suggestion for such an ordinance came two weeks ago from Police and Fire Commissioner John J. Long.

City Appeals To Truman For Area Fund Approval

Telegram Also Sent To Army Engineers

A direct appeal to President Truman and the Army Engineers for "immediate approval" of appropriations for the Savage River Dam and the Cumberland flood control project was made yesterday by Mayor Thomas S. Post.

In identical telegrams sent to the President and to Col. Allen J. McCutcheon, Washington district engineer, the major said:

"The Mayor and City Council of Cumberland respectively urges the immediate approval of the appropriations for the Savage River Dam and the Cumberland flood control project.

"As you are aware, this city has a critical unemployment situation.

"The completion of the Savage River Dam will increase the available flow of water in the Potomac here for industrial purposes and afford us better opportunities for securing new industries.

"The stoppage of the flood control program at this stage would result in increasing danger to the city of damage in the event of high water and would further complicate our economic situation."

The two area projects are included in the $35,554,000,000 omnibus appropriation bill passed by the U. S. Senate and sent to the President early this week.

All projects included in the bill are subject to approval by the President and the Corps of Engineers as to whether or not they are essential.

That provision was put into the huge omnibus bill by a joint Senate-House conference committee who left responsibility for applying a $76,000,000 cut in appropriations for flood control and navigation projects up to the President and the Engineers.

Col. McCutcheon visited Cumberland two weeks ago to inspect the two area projects and to discuss allocation of funds for the second half of the current second phase of flood control work.

AHS Graduate Wins Award In National Essay Contest

Miss Edith Sweene, who graduated this year from Allegany High School, has been chosen as one of the prize winners in the 15th annual national high school essay contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In a telegram to the News last night from Eleanor Grant Rigby, national secretary of the VFW Auxiliary now in convention at Chicago, Miss Sweene was listed as receiving an honorable mention award.

Toy flight winners in the contest for a thousand word essay on the subject, "Peace, With Honor, For America," are listed in the message as Donna Raymer, Belding, Mich., first prize ($1,000); Richard C. Steadman, Honolulu, Hawaii, second ($500); Eleanora Sawyer, Carson City, Nev., third ($250); and Mary Singer, Manitowac, Wis., fourth ($100).

Miss Sweene won the local contest and the state contest to make her eligible for the national competition. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sweene, 507 Frederick Street, and a native of Mt. Savage, born there February 16, 1932. She attended Mt. Royal Avenue School prior to entering Allegany where she was active in art, language and music clubs. She has been accepted for enrollment at Randolph-Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Va., this fall.

Mrs. Lillian Zimmerman, 634 Frederick Street, member of Henry Hart Post No. 1411, VFW Auxiliary here, was state chairman of this year's essay contest in Maryland.

Oil Tanker, Car Collide On 220 Killing One Man

Rain-Slick Highway Blamed For Crash

An automobile and oil tanker collided on rain-slick Route 220 yesterday at Dawson, killing one man and injuring two more passengers in the automobile. Police said the car plunged over an eight foot bank.

Trooper Jack Browning said Joe Gardner, 35, Keyser, died within five minutes after being removed from the demolished automobile. He was listed by police as the driver.

Injured were Virgil S. Morrehead, 45, Keyser, who was treated at Potomac Valley Hospital and dismissed. Garland House, 28, a deaf mute, left the accident scene but later sought treatment at the hospital. He was admitted "for observation."

Police said the Gardner automobile was headed toward Keyser, "apparently traveling at a high rate of speed," when it collided with the privately-owned tanker operated by Eskon F. Swisher, Springfield, W. Va.

Gardner, police said, apparently was driving with his left arm sticking out the window. His arm struck the tanker behind the cab as the car skidded on the wet road causing complete loss of control, police said.

The car careened off the tanker, traveled approximately 300 feet from the point of impact and plunged over an eight foot bank where it landed on its top.

All three persons had to be removed from the wreckage by motorists who stopped to give aid. Morrehead was taken to the hospital, but House could not be found a short time after the crash.

He was admitted to the hospital shortly after 7 p. m., but attaches said they could not diagnose his injuries pending X-rays today. They listed his condition as "not serious."

Police said damage to the tanker, which apparently was empty, was slight. The rear of the car knocked a handle off the cab door as the front sideswiped the rear of the vehicle, police said.

Swisher, along with other witnesses, was summoned to the office of State's Attorney for questioning today.

Relatives said Gardner was scheduled to report for induction into the United States Army September 14. He had passed his preinduction physical.

Dr. H. V. Deming gave a verdict of death due to pulmonary hemorrhage.

Gardner was an employe of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He worked in the Keyser yards as a brakeman. He was a son of Clarence E. and Nellie V. Junkins Gardner with whom he resided.

Mahoney Rally Is Scheduled Here Tonight

Wilson Declines To Introduce Candidate

George P. Mahoney, Democratic Party primary condidate for governor of Maryland, will speak at a rally in the Fort Cumberland Hotel tonight at 8:15 p. m., but there is some question as to who will introduce him.

The candidate's headquarters yesterday announced that he will be introduced by William L. Wilson, Jr., chairman of the Allegany County Democratic State Central Committee.

Last night, Wilson issued a statement claiming he refused the invitation to introduce Mahoney and at no time intended to appear at the rally. Wilson said he further advised Michael F. Prendergast, who is in charge of Mahoney's headquarters here, to introduce Mahoney himself.

Wilson's full statement follows:

"On August 30, an article appeared in the Cumberland Evening Times concerning the appearance in Cumberland of Mr. Mahoney, Democratic candidate for governor, in which it was stated that I was to introduce Mr. Mahoney at a political rally to be held in Cumberland on the evening of August 31st. I wish to emphatically state that this reference to my introducing Mr. Mahoney is entirely inaccurate and that the same was published without my consent or knowledge.

"This statement regarding my introducing Mr. Mahoney is a glaring example of the misleading statements which the Mahoney campaign headquarters here has been issuing to the public in this county.

"About 11:15 a. m. on August 30th, I did receive an invitation from Mr. Michael F. Prendergast, Mahoney's campaign manager, requesting me to introduce Mr. Mahoney. This was directed to me by Mr. Prendergast although he had ample knowledge of my open support and endorsement of Governor Lane for re-election. While I was in the process of dictating a reply to this invitation, informing Mr. Prendergast that I considered his invitation an affront to my intelligence, I was advised that the Evening Times was already carrying the story as a release from Mahoney headquarters.

"Mr. Prendergast's letter was addressed to me as chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. In my reply, I explained to him that the Democratic State Central Committee of this county had not endorsed either Mr. Lane or Mr. Mahoney, or any other candidate in the Primary election, however that, I, as an individual Democrat, exercising the freedom of choice which is the prerogative of all Democrats, was supporting Governor Lane.

"I further advised him that the type of campaign he was using in Allegany County was not helping the Democratic Party, nor did I think it was doing Mr. Mahoney much good.

"I explained to him that there were certain standards of decency which all fair-minded people observe even in the heat of political campaigns, but that he apparently was not familiar with these standards and that his sly, insidious attempt to compromise me into introducing his candidate Mr. Mahoney, was designed solely to embarrass me and was a good example of his campaign methods.

Kelly Workers To Negotiate For Wage Hike

The Kelly-Springfield Tire Company yesterday agreed to reopen its current contract with the rubber workers union to discuss a 25-cent wage increase demand filed by the union. Negotiations open September 11.

F. T. Bell, Kelly personnel manager, yesterday informed officials of Local 26, United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers (CIO), by letter of the company's agreement to discuss the issue.

The union filed its request with the company early in August to reopen the current contract which was signed in April. Union officials said the pact contains a reopening clause.

In its request the union informed the company that it wishes to begin negotiations on wage issues "which include a 25 cent hourly wage increase."

Union officials said they desire to carry out the 1950 economic program agreed on at the Policy Committee meeting in Columbus, Ohio, July 24 and 25.

At that time the URCLPWA included in its economic policy program a nation-wide demand for a 25-cent hourly wage hike; any further increases needed to meet the cost of living increase since July 15 based on the Consumers Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and a six-cent hourly increase to be applied to the correction of intra-plant and inter-plant inequalities and inequities and area differentials.

Ralph C. Beard, union official, said the recent wage increase granted Celanese workers here created a differential for Kelly maintenance and some hourly rate service workers.

The union is especially anxious to negotiate for correction of intra-plant and area inequalities since these conditions have changed drastically since the contract was signed in April.

Beard said the union action was authorized at a meeting of the membership following a report on the URCLPWA policy program.

Lions Club Organized At Cresaptown

A new member of District 22-W, International Association of Lions Clubs, the Potomac Valley Lions Club of Cresaptown, was organized last night in the Cresaptown Fire Hall.

Alvin E. Yaste, Cumberland, district governor, organized the club with the assistance of Edwin R. Kingsley, Parkersburg, W. Va., international representative and former association.

The 26 members present last night elected Ray Pile president.

Other officers are William Yoder, secretary; Al Walston, tail twister; H. A. Lasher, lion tamer; John Barton, treasurer; John Mason, first vice president; Rev. Raymond M. Crowe, second vice president; Jay Pile, third vice president; H. M. Yokum and John Yoder, directors for a two-year term, and William Loar and Ralph McHenry, directors for a one-year term.

Yaste said the group voted to meet on the second and fourth Wednesday of every month at 6:30 p. m. in the Cresaptown Fire Hall.

The charter will remain open for 30 days and Thursday, October 26, has been set tentatively as "Charter Night."

Cumberland and Mt. Savage Lions Clubs are co-sponsors of the Potomac Valley Club, first service club to be organized in Cresaptown.

Other Lions representatives present last night were Dr. William E. Moseley, Mt. Savage, deputy district governor; William Logsdon, Mt. Savage, zone chairman; Winfield Adam, president of the Cumberland Club; Andrew Lenox, president of the Mt. Savage Club; Pinkney Holmes, president of the Frostburg Club, and Ronald Salesky, president of the Westernport-Luke Clubs.

Delegations from the Cumberland, Mt. Savage, Frostburg and Westernport-Luke clubs also attended.

Return From School

Two officers of Local 26, United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers (CIO) have returned from the CIO summer school where they studied labor economy, legislative issues and publicity.

The two are Stanley Zorick, treasurer, and Patrick Atkinson, secretary. The course ran from August 20 through August 26.

The Weather

Yesterday will hardly rank in history as one of Cumberland's more pleasant days. The afternoon was hot and sticky with high temperatures of 88 in Constitution Park and 86 downtown. The somewhat miserable day was climaxed by a sudden downpour that drenched a good many residents going home from work. By 9:45 p.m., .78 inch of rain had fallen and more was coming down. However, the late night reading was still a rather high 71 degrees. The downtown overnight low had been 70 and it was only four degrees cooler in the park. Today should be slightly cooler with a few showers.

HOURLY DOWNTOWN TEMPERATURES

Deaths

HEUER SERVICE

A service was held yesterday at the Stein Funeral Home for Paul Heuer, 70, of 811 Bedford Street, who died unexpectedly Monday morning. Mr. Heuer was owner and operator of the Monarch Printing Company on Frederick Street.

Rev. Dr. H. Hall Sharp, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. Hixon T. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Interment was in St. Luke's Cemetery.

Pallbearers were John E. Ehrbar, Howard W. Vandegrift, H. Clifford Spiker, John Brenneman, Thomas Brown and Fred W. Flurshutz.

KELLEY BURIAL

A requiem high mass will be held today at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church for John J. Kelley, 75, who died Monday. Rev. Robert Hopkins, assistant pastor, will officiate and interment will be in the church cemetery.

The body is at the Scarpelli Funeral Home.

Corps To Parade

Fulton Meyers Post Drum and Bugle Corps will meet at 310 Maryland Avenue at 6 o'clock this evening to go to Romney, W. Va., for a parade there. The corps will also meet at 9 a. m. Monday to participate in the Labor Day Parade.

LaVale Youngsters Hold Circus And Donate $8 To Local League

The treasury of the Allegany County League for Crippled Children is richer by eight dollars, thanks to the efforts of 10 LaVale youngsters.

Several weeks ago the children hit on the scheme of holding a benefit event to raise money for the League.

They worked on costumes, sold tickets to the neighbors and selected the yard at the home of nine-year-old Joanna Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hart, LaVale Terrace, as the site.

The climax of two weeks of planning came Monday night, when the children presented a circus before an audience of about 50 persons.

Acrobatics, ballet and tap dancing, trapeze acts and a cowboy show made up the program.

Barbara Goodfellow served as mistress of ceremonies, and the children sold popcorn and cold drinks to increase their receipts.

Yesterday the group visited League headquarters and asked to see Mrs. Hume O. Annan, executive secretary.

Ten-year-old Jack Tosh, oldest of the group presented Mrs. Annan with two change purses containing the $8, mostly in nickels and pennies.

Other youngsters who took part included John Taylor, Richard Tosh, Tommy Lowery, Allen Kendell and Sharon Shuck.

Several mothers of the group are members of the Mothers Club which holds annual dances for the benefit of the League.

"Maybe the children got the idea for the circus that way," they commented.

Birth Announcements

Memorial Hospital announced the following births yesterday:

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hitzell, Wiley Ford, W. Va., a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ward, Route 3, Keyser, W. Va., a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Keyser, Route 6, Park Heights, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hinkle, Oldtown, a daughter. Mrs. Hinkle is the former Miss Dorothy Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Winebrenner, Mt. Savage, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, Route 3, Bedford, Pa., a son.

Allegany Hospital announced the following births yesterday:

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, 142 Bedford Street, a daughter Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mason, Knoxville, Tenn., a former resident announce the birth of a daughter August 23 in a hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Perdew, Washington, announce the birth of a son Sunday in a hospital there. Mrs. Perdew is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Hoffmeister, Bedford Road. The father is the son of Magistrate and Mrs. Frank A. Perdew, Goethe Street.

Mahoney Favors Budget System

George P. Mahoney, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, repeated his platform statement that if Maryland would set up a new system of accounting and budget controls, the state could save enough cash to bring about an immediate tax reduction at a rally last night in Oakland.

Speaking in Oakland Tuesday he came out with a promise to restore the 1927 law requiring Maryland institutions to buy state coal.

Mahoney also promised "to do something about stream pollution and rehabilitation of wildlife in Maryland."

Tonight, Mahoney will speak at a rally beginning at 8 o'clock in the Fort Cumberland Hotel. His spech will be broadcast at 8:15.

Mahoney's headquarters announced yesterday that a proposed tour of the county will be cancelled because the candidate wishes to attend the funeral of one of his supporters, Ambrose Kennedy, former congressman, this morning in Baltimore. He will return to Cumberland at 5:30 p. m.

Meanwhile, it was announced in Baltimore that Mahoney has the backing of Frank J. Bender, president of the Maryland and District of Columbia Industrial Union Council. However, Bender emphasized he gave his support as a "private citizen" rather than a union officer.

Carpenti Is Ill

Trial Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti has been ill for two days at his home, 746 Fayette Street. Harold E. Naughton served as substitute magistrate yesterday in Trail Magistrates Court.

White To Speak Here Labor Day

E. R. WHITE, Cleveland, Ohio, international vice president of the Machinists Union, will be one of the guest speakers at the Labor Day picnic and rally in Crystal Park, Monday, according to Charles E. Hardy, chairman of the railroad committee.

Hardy said railroad brotherhoods here plan to have a number of floats in the parade. Floats will be entered by Machinists Local No. 212; Brotherhood of Railway Carmen; Boilermakers Union; Bolt and Forge Federated Shopcrafts; and Rolling Mill Employes.

Paul E. Burley, secretary to the Join Labor Day committee, said last night the committee held a final meeting and completed details for the picnic and outing. The parade committee will meet at the Teamsters Hall and the Textile Hall at 9:30 a. m. Monday and go immediately to South End to form the parade. The march is to begin at 10:30 a. m.

A reviewing stand is to be located and decorated at Park Street and a speakers stand in the park also will be decorated.

Free rides will be given all children under 14 at the Park, Burley stated. He said the committee decided to fix an age limit to avoid confusion and misunderstanding. Treats and refreshments will be served the youngsters at the park.

The program will include a day-long activity of games, contests, speeches, music, concerts and other entertainment to be climaxed with a fireworks display at night.

Local Laboratory Holds Good Accuracy Record

An enviable record for accuracy is held by the Cumberland Branch Laboratory of the State Department of Health.

This was reported yesterday by Dr. Winter R. Frantz, deputy state health officer, after several inquiries were received from local residents regarding the laboratory's status.

Dr. Frantz said the inquires resulted from an article titled "Menace in the Medical Lab," which appeared recently in a national magazine.

The article reported that thousands of illnesses are incorrectly diagnosed in the United States each year because of faulty laboratory tests.

However, the Cumberland Branch Laboratory has an average yearly record of 95 per cent accuracy in its tests, Dr. Frantz said.

Test specimens are sent to the local laboratory periodically by state and federal authorities for checking accuracy.

For example, the State Department of Health recently sent a blood specimen to the Cumberland Branch Laboratory for a blood chemistry test on sugar content.

Results were checked against control laboratory findings, which are obtained from three Baltimore laboratories, including one at the University of Maryland.

In the blood chemistry test, the Cumberland Branch Laboratory obtained a sugar content reading of 148 milligrams per cent.

The control laboratory's finding was 150 milligrams, with the permissible variation ranging from 135 to 165 milligrams. Actual amount of sugar added to the specimen was 150 milligrams.

Dr. Frantz recalled that a survey was recently completed by the State Department of Health, in which blood specimens, identified only by numbers, were sent to this laboratory.

New Furniture Added To Clerk Of Court Office

Part of the new steel furniture, including the long counter, several desks, chairs and tables, installed this week in the office of the clerk of court is shown here. When completed, Clerk Joseph E. Boden says the office will be more conveniently arranged for employes, the public and attorneys who must use it. In the picture are Clarence Shutter, attorney (standing), while seated (left to right) in the background are Merwin R. Hast, deputy clerk in charge of equity; Clerk Boden and Thomas N. Berry, an attorney, using the telephone. Mrs. Elizabeth Weibel, a deputy clerk, is in the foreground. Just in front of her desk, can be seen one of the old type tables which had "graced" the office for half a century. Some of the old furniture had been in the office so long none of the present personnel can recall where it came from. Most of it, Boden said, was just an accumulation through the years. The office is to be repainted and otherwise renovated to complete the modernization program.

Over 50 Persons To Exhibit At Cumberland Horse Show

Over 50 persons, many of them from the Cumberland area, will enter horses in the fourth annual Cumberland Horse Show September 16 and 17, William R. Carscaden, secretary of the arrangements committee, said last night.

For the second year, the Cumberland Lions Club will sponsor the equistrian program at Fairgo. Proceeds will go to the Allegany County League for Crippled Children and the Overlea School for the Blind.

Entries received so far include: "New Penny", Carolyn Settles, Hagerstown; "President Washington," L. R. Brown, Uniontown, Pa.; "Leatherwood Pride," Mrs. Eleanor Graham, Pittsburgh; "Pan American," Jack Graham, Pittsburgh; "Clipper Wilson" and "Wilson's Merry Lad," M. S. Heiskell, Frostburg; "Noble Love McDonald" and "Suzan McDonald," Robert Shoemaker, Somerset, Pa.

"Hall's Masterpiece," "Redi for Action," "Slippery's Pride" and "Lady in White", Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Balling, Uniontown; "Mid Sun Red Man," M. S. Edelin, Broadway, Pa.; "Black Beauty" and "Hickory Mistress," Ralph E. Crew, Steubenville, Ohio; "Happy Hills K[illegible]ght," John Hafer, this city; [illegible]aby Genius," Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Shown above are some of the LaVale youngsters who put on their own circus Monday night in the yard of a LaVale Terrace home to raise money for the Allegany County League for Crippled Children. They presented $8 to the League yesterday. In the front row (left to right) are Richard Tosh, Tommy Lowery and Allen Kendell; second row (same order) are John Taylor and Jack Tosh; and third row are Barbara Goodfellow, who acted as mistress of ceremonies, and Joanna Hart, at whose home the circus was held. Other youngsters not present when the picture was taken are Sharon Shuck, James Hart and Roger Lowery.

The Weather

Yesterday will hardly rank in history as one of Cumberland's more pleasant days. The afternoon was hot and sticky with high temperatures of 88 in Constitution Park and 86 downtown. The somewhat miserable day was climaxed by a sudden downpour that drenched a good many residents going home from work. By 9:45 p.m., .78 inch of rain had fallen and more was coming down. However, the late night reading was still a rather high 71 degrees. The downtown overnight low had been 70 and it was only four degrees cooler in the park. Today should be slightly cooler with a few showers.

HOURLY DOWNTOWN TEMPERATURES

HEUER SERVICE

A service was held yesterday at the Stein Funeral Home for Paul Heuer, 70, of 811 Bedford Street, who died unexpectedly Monday morning. Mr. Heuer was owner and operator of the Monarch Printing Company on Frederick Street.

Rev. Dr. H. Hall Sharp, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. Hixon T. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Interment was in St. Luke's Cemetery.

Pallbearers were John E. Ehrbar, Howard W. Vandegrift, H. Clifford Spiker, John Brenneman, Thomas Brown and Fred W. Flurshutz.

KELLEY BURIAL

A requiem high mass will be held today at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church for John J. Kelley, 75, who died Monday. Rev. Robert Hopkins, assistant pastor, will officiate and interment will be in the church cemetery.

The body is at the Scarpelli Funeral Home.

Corps To Parade

Fulton Meyers Post Drum and Bugle Corps will meet at 310 Maryland Avenue at 6 o'clock this evening to go to Romney, W. Va., for a parade there. The corps will also meet at 9 a. m. Monday to participate in the Labor Day Parade.

LaVale Youngsters Hold Circus And Donate $8 To Local League

The treasury of the Allegany County League for Crippled Children is richer by eight dollars, thanks to the efforts of 10 LaVale youngsters.

Several weeks ago the children hit on the scheme of holding a benefit event to raise money for the League.

They worked on costumes, sold tickets to the neighbors and selected the yard at the home of nine-year-old Joanna Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hart, LaVale Terrace, as the site.

The climax of two weeks of planning came Monday night, when the children presented a circus before an audience of about 50 persons.

Acrobatics, ballet and tap dancing, trapeze acts and a cowboy show made up the program.

All of the children took part, including the two youngest in the group, 3½-year-old Roger Lowery and four-year-old James Hart, who appeared in the cowboy show.

Barbara Goodfellow served as mistress of ceremonies, and the children sold popcorn and cold drinks to increase their receipts.

Yesterday the group visited League headquarters and asked to see Mrs. Hume O. Annan, executive secretary.

Other youngsters who took part included John Taylor, Richard Tosh, Tommy Lowery, Allen Kendell and Sharon Shuck.

Several mothers of the group are members of the Mothers Club which holds annual dances for the benefit of the League.

"Maybe the children got the idea for the circus that way," they commented.

City Appeals To Truman For Area Fund Approval

Telegram Also Sent To Army Engineers

A direct appeal to President Truman and the Army Engineers for "immediate approval" of appropriations for the Savage River Dam and the Cumberland flood control project was made yesterday by Mayor Thomas S. Post.

In identical telegrams sent to the President and to Col. Allen J. McCutcheon, Washington district engineer, the major said:

"The Mayor and City Council of Cumberland respectively urges the immediate approval of the appropriations for the Savage River Dam and the Cumberland flood control project.

"As you are aware, this city has a critical unemployment situation.

"The completion of the Savage River Dam will increase the available flow of water in the Potomac here for industrial purposes and afford us better opportunities for securing new industries.

"The stoppage of the flood control program at this stage would result in increasing danger to the city of damage in the event of high water and would further complicate our economic situation."

The two area projects are included in the $35,554,000,000 omnibus appropriation bill passed by the U. S. Senate and sent to the President early this week.

All projects included in the bill are subject to approval by the President and the Corps of Engineers as to whether or not they are essential.

That provision was put into the huge omnibus bill by a joint Senate-House conference committee who left responsibility for applying a $76,000,000 cut in appropriations for flood control and navigation projects up to the President and the Engineers.

Col. McCutcheon visited Cumberland two weeks ago to inspect the two area projects and to discuss allocation of funds for the second half of the current second phase of flood control work.

Mahoney Favors Budget System

George P. Mahoney, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, repeated his platform statement that if Maryland would set up a new system of accounting and budget controls, the state could save enough cash to bring about an immediate tax reduction at a rally last night in Oakland.

Speaking in Oakland Tuesday he came out with a promise to restore the 1927 law requiring Maryland institutions to buy state coal.

Mahoney also promised "to do something about stream pollution and rehabilitation of wildlife in Maryland."

Tonight, Mahoney will speak at a rally beginning at 8 o'clock in the Fort Cumberland Hotel. His spech will be broadcast at 8:15.

Mahoney's headquarters announced yesterday that a proposed tour of the county will be cancelled because the candidate wishes to attend the funeral of one of his supporters, Ambrose Kennedy, former congressman, this morning in Baltimore. He will return to Cumberland at 5:30 p. m.

Meanwhile, it was announced in Baltimore that Mahoney has the backing of Frank J. Bender, president of the Maryland and District of Columbia Industrial Union Council. However, Bender emphasized he gave his support as a "private citizen" rather than a union officer.

Carpenti Is Ill

Trial Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti has been ill for two days at his home, 746 Fayette Street. Harold E. Naughton served as substitute magistrate yesterday in Trail Magistrates Court.

AHS Graduate Wins Award In National Essay Contest

Miss Edith Sweene, who graduated this year from Allegany High School, has been chosen as one of the prize winners in the 15th annual national high school essay contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In a telegram to the News last night from Eleanor Grant Rigby, national secretary of the VFW Auxiliary now in convention at Chicago, Miss Sweene was listed as receiving an honorable mention award.

Toy flight winners in the contest for a thousand word essay on the subject, "Peace, With Honor, For America," are listed in the message as Donna Raymer, Belding, Mich., first prize ($1,000); Richard C. Steadman, Honolulu, Hawaii, second ($500); Eleanora Sawyer, Carson City, Nev., third ($250); and Mary Singer, Manitowac, Wis., fourth ($100).

Miss Sweene won the local contest and the state contest to make her eligible for the national competition. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sweene, 507 Frederick Street, and a native of Mt. Savage, born there February 16, 1932. She attended Mt. Royal Avenue School prior to entering Allegany where she was active in art, language and music clubs. She has been accepted for enrollment at Randolph-Macon Women's College, Lynchburg, Va., this fall.

Mrs. Lillian Zimmerman, 634 Frederick Street, member of Henry Hart Post No. 1411, VFW Auxiliary here, was state chairman of this year's essay contest in Maryland.

Kelly Workers To Negotiate For Wage Hike

The Kelly-Springfield Tire Company yesterday agreed to reopen its current contract with the rubber workers union to discuss a 25-cent wage increase demand filed by the union. Negotiations open September 11.

F. T. Bell, Kelly personnel manager, yesterday informed officials of Local 26, United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers (CIO), by letter of the company's agreement to discuss the issue.

The union filed its request with the company early in August to reopen the current contract which was signed in April. Union officials said the pact contains a reopening clause.

In its request the union informed the company that it wishes to begin negotiations on wage issues "which include a 25 cent hourly wage increase."

Union officials said they desire to carry out the 1950 economic program agreed on at the Policy Committee meeting in Columbus, Ohio, July 24 and 25.

At that time the URCLPWA included in its economic policy program a nation-wide demand for a 25-cent hourly wage hike; any further increases needed to meet the cost of living increase since July 15 based on the Consumers Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and a six-cent hourly increase to be applied to the correction of intra-plant and inter-plant inequalities and inequities and area differentials.

Ralph C. Beard, union official, said the recent wage increase granted Celanese workers here created a differential for Kelly maintenance and some hourly rate service workers.

The union is especially anxious to negotiate for correction of intra-plant and area inequalities since these conditions have changed drastically since the contract was signed in April.

Beard said the union action was authorized at a meeting of the membership following a report on the URCLPWA policy program.

Mahoney Rally Is Scheduled Here Tonight

Wilson Declines To Introduce Candidate

George P. Mahoney, Democratic Party primary condidate for governor of Maryland, will speak at a rally in the Fort Cumberland Hotel tonight at 8:15 p. m., but there is some question as to who will introduce him.

The candidate's headquarters yesterday announced that he will be introduced by William L. Wilson, Jr., chairman of the Allegany County Democratic State Central Committee.

Last night, Wilson issued a statement claiming he refused the invitation to introduce Mahoney and at no time intended to appear at the rally. Wilson said he further advised Michael F. Prendergast, who is in charge of Mahoney's headquarters here, to introduce Mahoney himself.

Wilson's full statement follows:

"On August 30, an article appeared in the Cumberland Evening Times concerning the appearance in Cumberland of Mr. Mahoney, Democratic candidate for governor, in which it was stated that I was to introduce Mr. Mahoney at a political rally to be held in Cumberland on the evening of August 31st. I wish to emphatically state that this reference to my introducing Mr. Mahoney is entirely inaccurate and that the same was published without my consent or knowledge.

"This statement regarding my introducing Mr. Mahoney is a glaring example of the misleading statements which the Mahoney campaign headquarters here has been issuing to the public in this county.

"About 11:15 a. m. on August 30th, I did receive an invitation from Mr. Michael F. Prendergast, Mahoney's campaign manager, requesting me to introduce Mr. Mahoney. This was directed to me by Mr. Prendergast although he had ample knowledge of my open support and endorsement of Governor Lane for re-election. While I was in the process of dictating a reply to this invitation, informing Mr. Prendergast that I considered his invitation an affront to my intelligence, I was advised that the Evening Times was already carrying the story as a release from Mahoney headquarters.

"Mr. Prendergast's letter was addressed to me as chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. In my reply, I explained to him that the Democratic State Central Committee of this county had not endorsed either Mr. Lane or Mr. Mahoney, or any other candidate in the Primary election, however that, I, as an individual Democrat, exercising the freedom of choice which is the prerogative of all Democrats, was supporting Governor Lane.

"I further advised him that the type of campaign he was using in Allegany County was not helping the Democratic Party, nor did I think it was doing Mr. Mahoney much good.

"I explained to him that there were certain standards of decency which all fair-minded people observe even in the heat of political campaigns, but that he apparently was not familiar with these standards and that his sly, insidious attempt to compromise me into introducing his candidate Mr. Mahoney, was designed solely to embarrass me and was a good example of his campaign methods.

Oil Tanker, Car Collide On 220 Killing One Man

Rain-Slick Highway Blamed For Crash

An automobile and oil tanker collided on rain-slick Route 220 yesterday at Dawson, killing one man and injuring two more passengers in the automobile. Police said the car plunged over an eight foot bank.

Trooper Jack Browning said Joe Gardner, 35, Keyser, died within five minutes after being removed from the demolished automobile. He was listed by police as the driver.

Injured were Virgil S. Morrehead, 45, Keyser, who was treated at Potomac Valley Hospital and dismissed. Garland House, 28, a deaf mute, left the accident scene but later sought treatment at the hospital. He was admitted "for observation."

Police said the Gardner automobile was headed toward Keyser, "apparently traveling at a high rate of speed," when it collided with the privately-owned tanker operated by Eskon F. Swisher, Springfield, W. Va.

Gardner, police said, apparently was driving with his left arm sticking out the window. His arm struck the tanker behind the cab as the car skidded on the wet road causing complete loss of control, police said.

The car careened off the tanker, traveled approximately 300 feet from the point of impact and plunged over an eight foot bank where it landed on its top.

All three persons had to be removed from the wreckage by motorists who stopped to give aid. Morrehead was taken to the hospital, but House could not be found a short time after the crash.

He was admitted to the hospital shortly after 7 p. m., but attaches said they could not diagnose his injuries pending X-rays today. They listed his condition as "not serious."

Police said damage to the tanker, which apparently was empty, was slight. The rear of the car knocked a handle off the cab door as the front sideswiped the rear of the vehicle, police said.

Swisher, along with other witnesses, was summoned to the office of State's Attorney for questioning today.

Relatives said Gardner was scheduled to report for induction into the United States Army September 14. He had passed his preinduction physical.

Dr. H. V. Deming gave a verdict of death due to pulmonary hemorrhage.

Gardner was an employe of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He worked in the Keyser yards as a brakeman. He was a son of Clarence E. and Nellie V. Junkins Gardner with whom he resided.

White To Speak Here Labor Day

E. R. WHITE, Cleveland, Ohio, international vice president of the Machinists Union, will be one of the guest speakers at the Labor Day picnic and rally in Crystal Park, Monday, according to Charles E. Hardy, chairman of the railroad committee.

Hardy said railroad brotherhoods here plan to have a number of floats in the parade. Floats will be entered by Machinists Local No. 212; Brotherhood of Railway Carmen; Boilermakers Union; Bolt and Forge Federated Shopcrafts; and Rolling Mill Employes.

Paul E. Burley, secretary to the Join Labor Day committee, said last night the committee held a final meeting and completed details for the picnic and outing. The parade committee will meet at the Teamsters Hall and the Textile Hall at 9:30 a. m. Monday and go immediately to South End to form the parade. The march is to begin at 10:30 a. m.

A reviewing stand is to be located and decorated at Park Street and a speakers stand in the park also will be decorated.

Free rides will be given all children under 14 at the Park, Burley stated. He said the committee decided to fix an age limit to avoid confusion and misunderstanding. Treats and refreshments will be served the youngsters at the park.

The program will include a day-long activity of games, contests, speeches, music, concerts and other entertainment to be climaxed with a fireworks display at night.

Local Laboratory Holds Good Accuracy Record

An enviable record for accuracy is held by the Cumberland Branch Laboratory of the State Department of Health.

This was reported yesterday by Dr. Winter R. Frantz, deputy state health officer, after several inquiries were received from local residents regarding the laboratory's status.

Dr. Frantz said the inquires resulted from an article titled "Menace in the Medical Lab," which appeared recently in a national magazine.

The article reported that thousands of illnesses are incorrectly diagnosed in the United States each year because of faulty laboratory tests.

However, the Cumberland Branch Laboratory has an average yearly record of 95 per cent accuracy in its tests, Dr. Frantz said.

Test specimens are sent to the local laboratory periodically by state and federal authorities for checking accuracy.

For example, the State Department of Health recently sent a blood specimen to the Cumberland Branch Laboratory for a blood chemistry test on sugar content.

Results were checked against control laboratory findings, which are obtained from three Baltimore laboratories, including one at the University of Maryland.

In the blood chemistry test, the Cumberland Branch Laboratory obtained a sugar content reading of 148 milligrams per cent.

The control laboratory's finding was 150 milligrams, with the permissible variation ranging from 135 to 165 milligrams. Actual amount of sugar added to the specimen was 150 milligrams.

Dr. Frantz recalled that a survey was recently completed by the State Department of Health, in which blood specimens, identified only by numbers, were sent to this laboratory.

New Furniture Added To Clerk Of Court Office

Part of the new steel furniture, including the long counter, several desks, chairs and tables, installed this week in the office of the clerk of court is shown here. When completed, Clerk Joseph E. Boden says the office will be more conveniently arranged for employes, the public and attorneys who must use it. In the picture are Clarence Shutter, attorney (standing), while seated (left to right) in the background are Merwin R. Hast, deputy clerk in charge of equity; Clerk Boden and Thomas N. Berry, an attorney, using the telephone. Mrs. Elizabeth Weibel, a deputy clerk, is in the foreground. Just in front of her desk, can be seen one of the old type tables which had "graced" the office for half a century. Some of the old furniture had been in the office so long none of the present personnel can recall where it came from. Most of it, Boden said, was just an accumulation through the years. The office is to be repainted and otherwise renovated to complete the modernization program.
